LITTLE MARY CECILIA BRUNOLD

Has just been cured of the worst Eczema ever seen by the doctors who treated her. From head to feet a mass of diseased skin. Several physicians, a medical college and all remedies fail Cured by Cuticura Remedies

My little daughter Mary Cecilia Brunold was afflicted with the worst case of eczema ever seen by the doctors who treated her She was literally covered from head to foot with scabs These physicians tried their best to cure her, but I believe they were only experimenting They kept on experimenting for over ten months but, instead of getting better the child got worse and I did not know what course to pursue My wife took her after we had paid all we could afford for medical treatment to a medical college where there were some twenty or thirty doctors assembled, but the case baffled them all My wife had to go every day and sometimes twice a day In fact the medicine they gave my child did not have time to act even if there was any virtue in it it was changed so often by orders of the doctors The latter part of January after everything had failed and patience and money were both exhausted I made up my mind to quit all doctoring and try the CUTICURA REMEDIES I did so and now I can say that my daughter is cured sound in health and well to the surprise of hundreds.

The druggist Mr H M Krueger corner Chouteau and Ewing Avenues, who sold us the CUTICURA REMEDIES is as much astonished as any of us The CUTICURA REMEDIES have worked a complete cure and we have used but a little more than three-fourths of a bottle of CUTICURA RESOLVENT and a proportionate amount of CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP I am ready at any time to make affidavit that my daughter had the worst case of eczema as the doctors all admit ever seen in this city and that she had been cured solely by the CUTICURA REMEDIES after the best physicians and remedies failed.

I shall be glad to have anyone call upon or write me who has a child similarly afflicted or any person who is troubled with a skin disease that he may see for himself what your CUTICURA REMEDIES have done I do this in gratitude for the cure that has been effected in my child's case

APPOINTMENTS OF POSTMASTERS

Report on the Sorghum Industry—A Scheme to Pension Retired Members of the Civil Service—A Contract Labor Decision

WASHINGTON April 9—The controller of the currency has authorized the Citizens National bank, of Spokane Falls, Washington territory to do business with a capital stock of $150,000 with B C Van Houten as president, and J G McEwin as cashier

POSTAL NOTES.

Representative Hermann has had several interviews with the postoffice officials in behalf of increased mail facilities in Oregon, and he has secured an order for a daily mail service from Vale to Burns also an increase of mail service from Prairie Creek to Imnaha via Joy postoffice, in Wallowa county

Jasper G Stevens has been appointed postmaster at Cove, Union county Oregon

The general superintendent of the railway mail service has notified representative Hermann that he has appointed O W Olney railway mail agent on the Portland and Coburg route

LAND OFFICE NOTES

C M Ogden has been appointed special timber agent of the land office by Secretary Noble Ogden's duties will be in Washington territory He will leave for the coast next week

Secretary Noble has granted the applications of a number of settlers on unsurveyed public lands in California Oregon and Washington territory for a survey of the lands on which they reside The secretary has directed that the United States surveyor general shall invite proposals to survey this land at the rates allowed by act of October 2, 1888

The secretary has also requested the attorney general to have a civil and criminal suit brought against George H Emerson of Hoquiam, and Gus Stratton, of Aberdeen, Washington territory for alleged unlawful cutting of timber Special Timber Agent Byrne reports that during last year these parties cut and removed in section 16 township 17 north range 8 west some 146 spruce trees valued at $5 per tree which they made into piling and boom timber

Secretary Noble has affirmed the decision of the commissioner of the general land office in rejecting the claims of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company to three quarter sections of land in the North Yakima and Walla Walla land districts, respectively The land in question is covered by the several homestead entries of Maria L. Ferguson William Lindsay and William J Landis

THE SORGHUM INDUSTRY.

Report of the Chemist of the Agricultural Department

WASHINGTON, April 9—H W Wiley, the chemist of the agricultural department has completed his record of experiments in the manufacture of sugar from sorghum conducted last year at Rio Grande N J Kenner La and Conway Springs, Douglass and Sterling, Kan

The work at Sterling differed from that at the other places It was an examination of all obtainable varieties of the sorghum plant begun by the Sterling Sugar Company and completed by the department

The work at Rio Grande N J was carried on by H A Hughes whose purpose was to determine whether or not sorghum sugar could be successfully manufactured on a small scale

Professor Wiley says that he does not see any favorable result coming from the two years trial at Rio Grande The practical experiments carried on at Douglass, consisted in a thorough trial of the system of diffusion (the Hughes system), to test its fitness for working on a large scale They were not a success, owing to the failure of the battery to work properly The agricultural results were, however, of a most encouraging nature, showing that in that locality a crop of sorghum cane can be grown which with proper treatment may be expected to yield eighty or ninety pounds of sugar from a ton of pure cane

Professor Wiley devotes considerable space to the presentation of the points to be considered in the building of factories Southern and Western Kansas possess the best soil and climate for sorghum raising so far as is now known The Indian territory is destined to be the center of the industry The expectation of establishing a successful sorghum industry in the great maize fields of the country must now be definitely abandoned

In detail the bulletin is very complete It contains the reports of the assistant in charge of the experiments at the several stations, with the daily records of results in a tabulated form an analysis of sugar beets grown in Kansas from seed furnished by Claus Spreckles and the effect of the diffusion process upon the extraction of sugar from the sugar cane

The latest report on this subject showed that an average of 191 pounds of sugar is made from a ton of cane

CONTRACT LABOR CANNOT REMAIN.

The Case of a Young Swiss Who Was Prohibited From Landing at Castle Garden.

WASHINGTON April 9—Secretary Windom has sustained the action of the collector of customs at New York in refusing to allow a Swiss immigrant named Flaig to land, and as a consequence he will be sent home at the expense of the vessel which brought him over

It appears that Flaig came to this country in response to an advertisment inserted in a Swiss newspaper by George Baul at the instance of H Barneman, of the New York Embroidering Works It was shown that Flaig paid his own passage money, and had made no contract with the New York Company He, however brought a letter from Baul to Barneman saying that he had engaged him as an embroiderer He also made up his mind six months ago to come to America, and had availed himself of the present opportunity to secure work in advance

The collector held that Flaig was prohibited from landing by the provisions of the contract labor law

AGRICULTURAL EXPERIMENTING.

A Large Number of Stations Now Established Throughout the Country.

WASHINGTON April 9—Secretary Rusk has issued a pamphlet giving a history of the agricultural experiment stations which have been established under the recent law of congress, and are now conducting scientific and practical experiments in regard to soil, tillage, manures, crops, stock feeding, dairying and horticulture for the interior states.

All of the states and one territory, Dakota now have agricultural experiment stations The total number of stations now in operation is forty and including the branch stations, nearly sixty They employ more than 370 scientists and agriculturists and will this year receive $585,000 from the national government and about $125,000 from the states and other sources.

The most cordial feeling is said to exist between the stations and the department of agriculture which is charged by congress with the duty of supervising and aiding the work of the stations.

POSTMASTERS APPOINTED.

The New Minister to France.

NEW YORK April 9—Whitelaw Reid says "I have received my commission as American minister to France, and have notified the state department that I will immediately arrange my business affairs and proceed to my post of duty

Through Pullman sleepers and dining cars, also second-class sleepers through to the East via Northern Pacific Railroad Office, No 121 First St, corner Washington.

A NEW ADMISSION SCHEME.

It Proposes to Join the Americanized Districts of New Mexico and Arizona.

CHICAGO April 9—Intelligence of a new movement in New Mexico in the interest of statehood is brought by H M Glasgow editor of the Sierra County Advocate who is in this city

He says that New Mexico would have been made a state this winter had it not been for the influence of the Mexicans The old don element of the Mexican race is as active in its supremacy in New Mexico as it ever was in old Mexico No legislation is effected in the territory that is not agreeable to the high class Mexicans. They dominate the country like feudal lords

"Recognizing this and the fact that it can never be otherwise said Glasgow, we want to separate ourselves from them

When asked how this could be accomplished, he said The Mexican and Indian population are found almost altogether in the northern and eastern portion of the territory while the English speaking people all live in the southwest portion Two weeks ago representatives from the five counties most largely American met at Las Cruces, and appointed a committee to canvass the district and influence the people in favor of a division To these counties they proposed to add Graham and Cochise counties of Eastern Arizona Seven counties together have a population of 35,000 almost exclusively what may be denominated American

The committee said Glasgow has urged the people unanimously in favor of a division By this means the Americans will leave the other elements a fair sized territory that they can make a state of when they are ready for it

But will Arizona consent to losing a part of her territory? was asked

The people in the two counties named are quite willing and the western portion of the territory will be left to add to Lower California when it shall become desirable to make a state of that country We feel reasonably confident of success if we can ever get the question before congress in the right shape

IN MEMORY OF SHERIDAN.

Gen Sherman Speaks at Exercises Held by the New York Legislature

ALBANY N Y April 9—Memorial exercises were held by the legislature for the late General Phillip H Sheridan at the Academy of Music to night General Martin D McMahon presided.

Bishop McNierny opened the exercises with prayer, and then followed an address by General Wager Swayne orator of the evening

At the conclusion of General Swayne's address there were calls for General Sherman who rose to respond General Curtiss introduced him with the remark "The greatest living general of the world stands before you

General Sherman spoke feelingly of his associations with General Sheridan saying only a few of his comrades were left to mourn him He then referred to his early acquaintance with Grant and Sheridan, and the cause for which all three fought He declared that no stronger or better American ever lived than Sheridan and said his name would always be coupled with those of Washington and Grant

General Alger made a few graceful remarks

FIRE IN BOSTON

Two Freight Houses With Their Contents Burned to the Ground

BOSTON April 9—The two freight houses of the Boston and Lowell division of the Boston and Maine Railroad were burned this evening The buildings were filled with almost an indescribable variety of general merchandise, including a large quantity of oil of vitriol, etc, and frequent explosions served alike to intimidate the fireman and so cause a rapid spread of the flames. Within the structure were about forty freight cars and all were destroyed before they could be removed to a place of safety

A portion of the large building was used as a grain elevator and was stored from 30,000 to 40,000 bushels of grain and a large quantity of flour

The fire is still burning although it is under control and it will probably be many hours before the firemen's work is completed. It is impossible to correctly estimate the loss or insurance, but the officials affirm that the loss will aggregate $500,000, upon which there is considerable insurance.

THE INTERSTATE RAILWAYS.

First Meeting Since the Selection of Walker as Chairman.

CHICAGO April 9—The first meeting of the Interstate Railway Association since A F Walker was chosen its chairman was held to-day Nearly all of the roads in the association were represented

The question of fast trains between Chicago and Kansas City was considered at length The matter was finally referred to a committee of the managers.

A general discussion followed on the interstate commerce act it being unanimously decided to enforce its provisions and learn by experience whether or not it was practicable

The next meeting will be held the second Tuesday in July

PRESBYTERY OF OREGON.

Rev. E N. Condit, of Albany, Elected Moderator.

LAFAYETTE, April 9—The presbytery of Oregon convened and was opened at 7 30 with a sermon by Rev W O Forbes, of Albina the retiring moderator At the close of the sermon the presbytery was constituted with prayer

After roll call the Rev Professor F N Condit, of Albany, Oregon was elected moderator The Rev George Gillespie, of Newport was elected temporary clerk, and Rev E R Pritchard of Albany reporting clerk

The committee on arrangements made its report which was adopted The presbytery then adjourned, to meet at 9 o'clock to-morrow morning

THE PRATT VILLAINY.

The Amount of the Embezzlement Not Yet Ascertained

ST PAUL April 9—A special from Anoka says The Pratt villainy still deepens as time passes The directors are reticent, and the condition of the bank cannot be ascertained. President Tickner discovered another note of Mrs Nells at Minneapolis to-day for $5000, making her loss $45,000

To a reporter Tickner said "These are all time notes, and we may not hear of all for some time Mrs Nells has lost confidence in Pratt, yet it is impossible to find how much money Pratt secured, as the wheat operator and Mr Speaks only know how much was invested in the speculation, and neither will divulge The books are falsified.

ARCTIC EXPLORATIONS.

General Greely Ridicules the Indian Half Breed's Scheme.

NEW YORK, April 9—General Greely was interviewed concerning Arctic explorations He says if he should make an effort to reach the North pole he would take the same route as before The scheme proposed by the Indian traveler who was with Lord Lonsdale, to reach the pole by means of dogs and sledges and keeping up a line of communication is all nonsense The distance is too great, and the Arctic region is one vast archipelago, with open straights which it is difficult or impossible to cross This plan is not worthy of serious consideration.

TWO MEN ASPHYXIATED.

The Fate of Ship Calkers at Port Hudson, Michigan.

PORT HUDSON Mich April 9—James Clemmo, a ship calker, while working over a calking vat here this morning became asphyxiated. His attendant, Stephen Porter, called for help and himself tried to assist Clemmo but when aid came both men were found to be insensible, and died shortly after the rescue was attempted, Dr Stephenson, the proprietor also attempted to help them but he too was asphyxiated, falling into the vat and sustaining severe injuries about the head

THE TRUNK LINE PRESIDENTS

Resolutions Offered Respecting Changes in Freight Rates

NEW YORK April 9—At the trunk line presidents meeting to day Commissioner Fink offered a resolution which was passed, recommending an increase in eastbound live stock rates from 22½ to 26 cents and reducing car rates

A resolution was also offered recommending an increase of rates for carrying dressed beef but no action was taken, and none will be taken until the western roads (to which the resolution will be submitted) are heard from

On Their Way West.

CHICAGO April 9—Roswell P Flower and family and several other New Yorkers arrived in this city this evening on their way West. They go in a special train to Colorado Springs and thence to Denver Salt Lake City, San Francisco and Southern California. After a short stay there they will visit Portland, Oregon, and will return by the Northern route

After Murderous Moonshiners.

LOUISVILLE, April 9—The expedition against the murderers of Deputy Marshal Wiseman has been resumed Revenue Agent Brown, with forty men, is now on the way to Knott county where the moonshiners are encamped about their distilleries. It is understood that he is acting under orders just received from Washington A fight is expected.

Reservations on any steamship line in the Atlantic service to Europe can be secured at Northern Pacific ticket office, No 121 First street, corner Washington.

ALASKA COAST SURVEY

The U. S. Steamer Patterson Sails North To-day.

THE DUTIES OF HER OFFICERS.

What Has Been Done in the Past, and What Will Be Accomplished This Season—A Description of the Work—Etc

SAN FRANCISCO April 9—The United States coast survey steamer C P Patterson sails to morrow for Alaska

The officers of the Patterson are as follows: Commander Lieutenant H B Mansfield chief executive officer Lieutenant E J Dorn, ensigns, A N Wood A C Almy A W Beecher J D McDonald, C F Slocum and Wm H Faust passed assistant engineer G R Strickland passed assistant surgeon H C Percy draughtsmen, H L Ford L St mlord and J G Smith The crew numbers about fifty men

In regard to the survey of the boundary line between Alaska and the British possessions it may be stated that the United States coast survey steamer Gedney is on her way out on New York to attend to that particular work. She is expected to arrive here shortly

THE WINTER'S WORK

Speaking more in detail of the Patterson's trip, it may be said that for five months she has been at this port Her officers have been engaged during this time in plotting and preparing maps that show the results of their last summer's work in Alaskan waters These maps cover nearly 800 miles of coast line leading up to Stevens passage, northeast of Sitka They embrace also an area of islands, water and main land of nearly 5000 square miles. A good part of this district was mapped in detail by triangulation ashore and by soundings off coast

On leaving San Francisco to morrow, the Patterson will steam up the coast as far as Cape Flattery She will then proceed through the Straits of Fuca to Port Townsend, where 10 000 feet of lumber will be taken on board The lumber will be used for building signal stations to assist the officers of the steamer in their triangulations, as the coast of Alaska is so hilly that the taking of observations in the interior is an impossibility. Signal stations are accordingly built along the beach and from them observations are taken

From Port Townsend the Patterson will go to Victoria and there make any additions to her supplies that may have been overlooked

The vessel will be away from civilization for the next seven months After leaving Victoria the Patterson will make a stoppage at Departure bay to take on 180 tons of coal. She will have one other chance of coaling as the Idaho will bring her another supply from San Francisco

THE PATTERSON'S WORK

The work of the Patterson will be somewhat peculiar She will do on the Alaska coast what is done in other parts of the United States by both coast survey steamers and land parties. For instance, in Santa Barbara, Los Angeles and San Diego counties Professor Davidson and his assistants have done all the work ashore, while the United States coast and geodetic survey steamer Hassler has done the soundings and the other work afloat. The officers of the Patterson do the work of both in assigned Alaskan territory They begin work at 7 o'clock A M leaving the ship in steam launches and work until 6 o'clock P M, doing triangulations running in shore lines and taking soundings As there are only a few months at the disposal of the survey party they work on all available days and rain or shine generally sees the officers at work

After leaving Departure bay, the Patterson will take the inside steamer route to Alaska, and will begin work at Cape Fanshaw, where the survey was discontinued in 1887 The work done in 1888 will then be gone over and verified, after which the party will work northwardly through Saginaw channel, at the same time taking in Gastineau channel.

While in this part of Alaska Juneau City will be visited This is the largest mining camp in Alaska, and possesses the largest quartz stamp mill, (the Douglas mine) in the world. There are 240 stamps

Taku inlet will also be triangulated. This is also a good mining country and many mines have been located but not worked owing to the difficulty of access.

AN OFFICER TALKS

In speaking about the work to be done by the party on the Patterson one of the officers said The sheets sent to us from Washington and from which we have to work have the astronomical limits that is the meridians and parallels—marked Our work will therefore consist in finding out what geographical limits are embraced on the sheets. The charts of Alaska have hitherto been made by running surveys that is without triangulation, and many passages which have never appeared on any sheet are constantly being found For instance, Holkham bay, which appears on the present sheet in the shape of a horseshoe has two long arms extending from ten to twenty miles out to sea. In 1888 a party of seven officers, who had nothing better to do started one Sunday to explore one of these arms While the Patterson was lying in Holkham bay, they had noticed great icebergs coming sailing down the arm and had reached the conclusion that there must be a great glacier somewhere near They made a start and after pulling twenty miles and still being able to see five miles ahead without any prospect of reaching the end of the arm they gave up in disgust and returned to the ship. When they got back they one and all had to be lifted out of the boat and put to bed The forty mile pull took all desire to ever visit the glacier again out of every man of the party. This year Holkham bay will be thoroughly explored and these arms set down on the map This time the triangulating party will be on duty bent, and not prompted by curiosity, so good results are sure to come The four corners of the sheet sent to us from Washington are as near as possible marked by Saginaw bay, Juneau City Cape Fanshaw and Taku inlet. Three thousand five hundred miles of shore line have been surveyed and accurately laid down. All inland passages from Dixon's inlet up to the work to be done this season has been covered during the last four years During the season each steamer launch covers from 4000 to 5000 miles.'

Death From a Singular Accident—The Grand Ronde Survey

WALLA WALLA, April 9—The following was the singular cause of the death of A J Crumb, of this city, at Wallula Sunday night. It seems that an excavation for a cellar was being made under the building that he was accustomed to stop in when in that town. During the night he attempted to enter the building, and fell headlong into the opening. In doing so he caused a large quantity of earth that had been thrown out and piled against some lumber to fall with him, not only completely burying him, but breaking his back and arms. The next day an employe about the premises saw a boot protruding from the mass of debris. Further examination revealed the body of the unfortunate man. He was once sheriff of Wasco county, Oregon.

SEN-TOH BLACKBURN A BAWN AWTER

How Col Starbottle Was Protected by His Admiring Friends

Here are two Southern stories that are worth remembering, albeit they are not particularly new.

I

One Kentucky gentleman meets another Kentucky gentleman and they address one another with that solemn earnestness which is characteristic of southern high life.

Good mohning, sah! Hope you are well, sah? What have you been this mohning?

"I have just come from the Coat house, sah. Sen-toh Blackbuhn has been making a speech—the finest speech I have heard since the wah. He is a bawn awter, sah—a bawn awter!"

"Excuse me, sah, but what do you mean by 'a bawn awter?'

A bawn awter? Don't you know what a bawn awter is? Why, sah, you and I would say, two and two make fo, but a bawn awter wouldn't say that. A bawn awter would say, "When, in the coase of human events it becomes nec'sa' or expedient to coalesce two integers and two other integers, the result—I declare it boldly and without fea or favah—the result, by a simple arithmetical calculation termed addition, is fo!" That's a bawn awter, sah.

II

"You have no idea, sah, what a demawlized condition we all were in after the wah! Fust thing they did, sah, was to send a —— Yankee down hyah to be poss'master. One mohning Colonel Starbottle, perfect gentleman, sah—member of one of our fust families—Colonel Starbottle went into the poss office and handed in three letters at the window, saying, 'Mr Poss'master, sah, I'll trouble you to put three stamps on those letters and charge the same to Colonel Starbottle.' Now, what do you reckon that —— Yankee poss master did? He says 'Colonel Starbottle, sah, we don't do business that way, sah,' and he pushed the letter back—back, sah, under Colonel Starbottle's nose! What did Colonel Starbottle do? What could he do? Why, sah, he drew his pistol like a gentleman and shot that —— Yankee poss'master—shot him dead. Now to show you how demawlized our institutions were: Do you know, sah, that on account of that personal affair we all had the ——est time keeping Colonel Starbottle from becoming involved in litigation?"

April Fooling.

On the 1st of April some forty years ago advertisements appeared in the morning newspapers of Pittsburgh announcing that at 3 o'clock that afternoon the inventor of a new flying machine would give a public exhibition of the practicability of his invention. He would fly from one of the Allegheny river bridges to another over the middle of the stream. Long before the hour set for the novel exhibition, both bridges and the banks of the river between them were densely crowded by men, women and children, all excitedly eager to see the flying man. But the only flying done was by a frightened goose that somebody liberated from the middle of the upper bridge a little after 3 o'clock, until which time the crowd had with [illegible] patience waited. The bird, alarmed by the roar of the multitude that greeted it, flew swiftly down the river under the lower bridge and far beyond the Point, where it was lost to sight. Then all at once the knowledge seemed to burst upon the throng that the whole affair was an April fool joke, and the many thousands of spectators disappeared almost as if by magic, [illegible] to get away from the spot. And that evening it was hard to find a [illegible] who would admit that he had been near the Allegheny river that day.

Even better than that as a joke upon popular credulity was a trick perpetrated in London no longer ago than 1860. Thousands of persons received official looking invitations to be present on Sunday afternoon, April 1, to witness the annual ceremony of the washing of the White Lions in the Tower. The favored recipients of [illegible] were [illegible] to present them [illegible] at the White Gate for admission. All the afternoon the streets near the Tower were thronged by hundreds of vehicles bearing people in carriages in quest of the White Gate. Finally somebody a little less thick witted than the rest of the crowd remembered that there was no white gate to the Tower, that there were no white lions, and that ceremonies under governmental auspices on Sunday were at least wildly improbable. Like an electric shock his reflections flashed through the throng of ceremony seekers, and the recognition of the fact that they all were April fools sent them scurrying away in angry [illegible].—Cassa Log[illegible] in Belford's Magazine for April.

THE OLD AND THE NEW

Inauguration of Governor Moore of Washington.

THE RETIRING GOVERNOR SPEAKS

The New Executive Takes the Oath of Office and Briefly Thanks Mr Semple—The New Secretary Also Begins His Duties

OLYMPIA, W T, April 9—The lovely weather [illegible] ladies as well as gentlemen to visit the capitol to witness the inauguration of Hon Miles C Moore as governor of Washington territory.

Promptly at 11 o'clock the meeting was called to order. Governor Semple [illegible] his farewell address.

[illegible] When the sovereign people elect one of their number to serve them as president of the United States they ordinarily do so by means of a political party, and the man whom they choose is expected to carry out to a certain extent the policy of that party. [illegible] should be of the same political faith. Two years ago Mr Cleveland, who had been elected president by the democrats and who was expected to carry out the policy of the democracy, [illegible] appointed a democrat as governor of this territory. Now Mr Harrison, who has been elected by the republicans and is expected to carry out the policy of the republicans, has appointed a republican to that position. As this is customary procedure and is not in [illegible] with the heartfelt good will between the [illegible] who go out and the gentlemen who come in. As my predecessor was here two years ago to take his leave of you and kindly introduced his successor, so I am here for a like purpose to-day.

During my incumbency of the honorable position of governor of this commonwealth I have endeavored to perform the duties that devolved upon me by law in a plain way and to the best of my ability, relying upon Divine Providence and the moral support of my fellow men rather than upon my own poor qualities. I have regarded the good of the people as the supreme law, and have protected and defended the constitution of the United States and the common law and liberty.

Now that I am about to surrender my trust I desire to return my heartfelt thanks to the people of Washington territory for the distinguished consideration they have shown me, and to their officers of all grades who have co-operated with me in executing the laws in the most effective manner, often rendering services at my request which the law did not require of them and for which they could draw no pay. I desire also to thank the press for the fair treatment of my administration and for its forbearance where it might justly have cast censure.

Last but by no means to be omitted I say to the men and women of Olympia that their treatment of me has attached me to them strongly, and when I leave their beautiful city I will drag at each remove a lengthening chain.

"With these few words of parting, I now have the honor and pleasure of introducing my successor, a gentleman who has been a citizen of the territory for a quarter of a century, who understands our needs, who is [illegible] to our interests, and who is entitled to our cordial support in the execution of his duties. Ladies and gentlemen, our fellow citizen, Honorable Miles C Moore of Walla Walla, Governor of Washington territory. [Applause.]

Governor Moore then came forward and the oath of office was administered in an impressive manner by Justice W G Langford, Chief Justice Hanford being unavoidably absent.

After his inauguration Governor Moore briefly thanked Governor Semple for his kind introduction to the representative people of Washington territory.

Col N H Owings in a few appropriate remarks introduced Hon O C White, the newly appointed secretary, who was thereupon regularly inducted into office, after which a general introduction to the new governor and secretary took place.

This evening a general reception is taking place in Columbia hall, which has been handsomely decorated for the occasion. Vaughn's full string band is in attendance, and the event will conclude with a ball.

ACTOR AND ACTRESS.

A Young Lady Wins a Suit Against Her Former Employer.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9—The case of Miss Ethel Stockmeyer vs W F Rochester was tried in one of the courts here to-day. The plaintiff sought and recovered judgment for $[illegible] salary for services as actress in Rochester's traveling company during November 1888.

Miss Stockmeyer told the story of her troubles with Rochester in a very dramatic manner. She said that she had entered into a contract with him to support him on a tour over Oregon at a salary of $30 a week. For some weeks all went well, but one night in Portland a member of the company attempted to kiss her against her will, and she determined to leave the combination. She then gave Rochester the usual two weeks notice.

She continued: "When I told him how I had been insulted he only laughed. I asked him for the money that was due me, but he refused to give it to me. He shook some greenbacks in my face one night in the dressing room, and told me to 'fish for it.' I left the company at Portland with two weeks salary due me."

Rochester did not deny the debt. He said that he had made certain contracts with the managers of the Oregon circuit, which were nullified with serious loss to him.

"When Miss Stockmeyer left the company," he said, "the managers of the circuit refused to use further engagements on the ground of a violation of the contract, they owing me $325. We then played for seven nights on the commonwealth plan and then returned to Portland. I withheld Miss Stockmeyer's salary, in order to protect myself."

Justice Hebbard said that he was convinced that Miss Stockmeyer's claim was just and gave judgment for her in $60 and costs.

A CIVIL SERVICE SCHEME

A Proposition According to Which Clerks May Be Retired on a Pension

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—The Examiner's Washington special says: A number of government clerks of this city are talking of a scheme for the establishment of a civil service retired list that bids fair to obtain the sanction of the government employes all over the country, and probably in the end will receive congressional support. The proposition is to create a pension fund by subscription from the employes. No appropriation will be asked for. All that is requested is an act to legalize the measure, which proposes to deduct from the pay of every clerk the sum of $1 monthly for the purpose of establishing a fund from which there shall be paid to every clerk who may be retired the sum of $40 per month.

All clerks who have served thirty years are to be eligible for retirement. Service in the army or navy can be added to the service in the departments.

The proposition has received the indorsements of many veterans of the civil service, and of the young men as well, who see the way clear to promotion by the retirement of the old men. A number of the bureau officials of the war department are in favor of the measure and will probably recommend it in their annual reports.

It is well known that there have been many cases in the departments where faithful clerks who have served thirty, forty and even fifty years have become incapacitated by reason of age and discharged from service without a cent.

It is estimated that there are between 6000 and 7000 clerks from whose salaries the proposed deductions would be made, and it has been discovered by a careful search that those subject to retirement at the present time would number less than a score.

THE CANNED FRUIT TRADE.

An Effort to Obtain More Reasonable Rates From the Railroads

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9—A meeting of dealers in canned fruits and of all persons interested in the production or marketing of fruit is called for Saturday, April 20, at the rooms of the San Francisco Board of Trade. The traffic agents of the Southern Pacific and Santa Fe railroads will be present.

A member of the firm of A Lusk & Co, canners of this city, said to-day: "The rate on canned fruits last year was so high that the volume of business transacted by the different canneries was very materially reduced. Since March 1 the rate has advanced still more, which has caused a total cessation of business, and the outlook at present is very dubious. They all have considerable stock on hand, with no spot trade, and with the present rates acting against them the future trade in canned fruits during 1889 is liable to be a very limited one."

The Office of Public Printer

New York Post

One of the first officials whom the politicians thought that President Harrison would remove was Mr Benedict, the public printer. The friends of the different applicants are now quite certain that Mr Benedict will not be removed until near the end of the fiscal year. One of the applicants who was most confident that he would receive the place says: "The difficulty is that the president expects to get a $20,000 man for $4500. He would like to have the superintendent of a great establishment like that of the Harper Brothers leave his position to come to Washington to take this very important place for the salary which the government allows." The president will be mistaken. Such men are not to be induced to leave business enterprises for the service of the government.

One Book Costing $50,000

The highest priced book ever sold brought $50,000. It was a vellum missal which was presented to King Henry VIII by Pope Leo X. The missal was accompanied by a document making King Henry the defender of the faith. It is now in the possession of the German government. Charles II gave it to an ancestor of the Duke of Hamilton, and it was sold a few years ago in the sale of the Duke of Hamilton's library. There is a Hebrew Bible in the Vatican. Attempts have been made to purchase it. The Jews of Venice offered its weight in gold. The offer was declined. The Bible consists of a vast roll of manuscript which requires two men to carry, and the offer would have to amount to about $100,000. That is the largest offer ever made for one book.

Harrison To Be Morton's Guest.

RHINEBECK, N Y, April [illegible]—President Harrison [illegible] announced will meet Vice President Morton at Ellerslie on or about the first of May and will be Morton's guest here. It is expected that the members of the cabinet will accompany the president, and that they will go up on the government vessel and anchor off Ellerslie, which overlooks the Hudson and is about a mile below Rhinecliff.

A Republican Elected in Texas

EL PASO, Tex, April 9—A Krakauer, republican candidate for mayor, was elected here to-day by [illegible] majority. The republicans also carried more than half of the council. Murder and Suicide

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia, April 9—An unknown young man entered a disreputable house in this city this evening and fatally shot Kittie Edwards, and then sent a bullet through his own head. He was a beardless youth, and so far as known was a stranger in the city. No cause for the deed can be learned.

NO PITY FOR BOULANGER

A Sensational Debate in the Chamber of Deputies.

THE SENATE WILL SIT AS A COURT

Warrants Issued for the Arrest of the General's Associates—A Warning by the Belgian Government—British Politics—Etc

PARIS, April [illegible]—The chamber of deputies [illegible] the senate sitting as a court [illegible] Boulanger.

[illegible] mockery of justice and an insult [illegible] a political body [illegible].

[illegible] epithet [illegible] and the scene was one of wild disorder.

When [illegible] was again allowed to continue he said that law and decency required that Boulanger should be tried by the assizes. Otherwise the trial would be an outrage of justice and a disgrace to the senate.

The remarks caused a renewal of the uproar. The members of the left made an attempt to reply. Deluns-Montaud immediately moved to apply the closure rule. The motion was carried [illegible]. The motion then made to begin the discussion of the bill by clauses was carried 321 to [illegible].

The chamber rejected all the amendments suggested by the members of the right.

The proposal by Ribot that a majority of seven twelfths of the senate be necessary to [illegible] pronounce [illegible] Boulanger was also defeated.

The bill was adopted by a vote of 311 to [illegible].

BOULANGER HAS COMPANY

PARIS, April 9—The indictment against Boulanger, besides charging him with conspiracy to destroy the republic, [illegible] specially directed against Count Dillon, M Laguerre, member of the chamber of deputies, Rochefort and Dubarry and two journalists in Paris.

WARNED BY THE GOVERNMENT

BRUSSELS, April 9—The Belgian government has formally warned Boulanger to abstain from political agitation [illegible] informed that if he complies with the wishes of the government in this respect he will not be expelled from Belgium.

MORE WARRANTS ISSUED

PARIS, April [illegible]—Warrants have been issued for the arrest of Count Dillon and M Rochefort.

THE ALIMONY MUST BE PAID

Dion Boucicault's Divorced Wife Institutes Proceedings for the Same.

LONDON, April 9—Agnes Boucicault, the divorced wife of Dion Boucicault, made application at the divorce court to-day for an order to enforce the payment of the alimony of £400 a year awarded to her in 1888. She asked that the payment be made from the proceeds of her former husband's British copyrights.

Boucicault in answer averred that all the proceeds from the copyrights were assigned in 1885 to Mr Cadigan, of New York, for the benefit of Boucicault's present wife.

The presiding judge expressed doubt as to Cadigan's existence, and that in any case the arrangement was fraudulent and void. He ordered that all such copyright moneys in possession of the court be paid to the plaintiff.

TO BE RAISED TO THE PEERAGE

Smith Will Leave a Vacancy in the Leadership of the House—The Conservatives Want Balfour

LONDON, April 9—The St James Gazette announces that Right Honorable William Henry Smith, first lord of the treasury, is about to be raised to the peerage. He will accordingly resign the government leadership in the house of commons and take his place in the house of lords.

The Gazette says that of the possible candidates for the leadership in succession to Smith, namely Lord Randolph Churchill, Sir Michael Hicks Beach, Goschen and Balfour, the last named is the best choice, and it declares that the conservatives will not take any leader other than Balfour.

UNDER THE CRIMES ACT.

Decision of the Court Sustaining Sentences of Imprisonment.

[illegible], April 9—The court [illegible] decision in the case of John Finucane, member of parliament, who appealed from a sentence of [illegible] months [illegible]. The court confirmed the sentence.

A decision was also rendered on the appeal of [illegible] Sheehy, member of parliament [illegible] of offences under the crimes act and [illegible] sentenced to ten months imprisonment. The [illegible] reduced the sentence to five months.

IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS

Rejection of Clark's Scottish Home Rule Motion

LONDON, April 9—The house of commons this evening, by a vote of 200 to [illegible], rejected Clark's Scottish home rule motion.

Gladstone opposed the motion in an animated speech, in which he said that the question was not ripe and would obstruct more pressing measures. He did not doubt, however, that when Scotland unanimously demanded home rule the parliament would accede to her desires.

CABLE NOTES

Londonderry to Resign.

LONDON, April 9—The St James Gazette says the Marquis of Londonderry has intimated a desire to resign the viceroyship of Ireland because of the pressure of private affairs and the ill health of his wife.

It is learned that Lord Londonderry has decided not to resign the post of Irish viceroy until August.

The Pearl Fisheries a Failure.

LONDON, April 9—A dispatch from Western India announces the failure of the pearl fisheries, owing to the prevalence of cholera. The failure involves a loss to the government of four lacs of rupees.

EX-SHERIFF SCHOEPS,

A Prominent German, Gives His Views of Dr. Darrin's Wonderful Cure of His Daughter.

Editor Oregonian: I am not in the habit of placing myself in public print, but the wonderful result achieved by Dr Darrin in the restoration of my daughter to health calls for mention, that others similarly afflicted may avail themselves of the new treatment by electricity. My daughter was seriously afflicted for six months with loss of appetite, liver complaint, malaria and rheumatic neuralgia throughout her whole system. Five physicians failed to cure her. Now I am happy to say she is cured. Refer to me at the Northwestern hotel, corner of Front and Clay streets, Portland, formerly of Oregon City, Or. A I SCHOEPS

The government snagboat Willamette is proving herself a good boat in swift water and bad bars, which are to be found in the upper Willamette. Sunday she made the run from the mouth of the Luckiamute to Oregon City in eight hours, one stop of half an hour. Recently she ran from Albany to Corvallis in [illegible] hours, which is exceedingly good time. The Willamette draws twenty-seven inches and consumes half a cord of wood an hour. Captain M[illegible], the master, is well acquainted with all the bars and currents of the upper river and is entitled to credit for the successful running of the boat.

Considerable anxiety is felt for the safety of the [illegible] bark Shalimar, which sailed for this port from [illegible] on the 22d of last December. As the [illegible] Australia has been frequently made in [illegible] days it will be seen that the vessel is long overdue. NOTES AROUND ASTORIA.

Pioneer April 2.

A monster sturgeon was lying on the Telephone dock yesterday awaiting shipment. It measured nine feet one inch from tip to tip, and wore a mouth like the entrance to a mine. It was caught over on Gray's river, and will be sent up to E. W. Crichton's turkey ranch at Oswego, to fatten the poultry.

The traps are catching but few fish as yet. Twenty-five, the result of a two days' catch, is the biggest lot reported yet. The average has been less than five fish per day to the trap.

A colony of people, living in the vicinity of Riverside, Columbia county, have determined to relocate by a division in their party at the mouth of the Nehalem river and erect mills and carry on an extensive lumber business. They have the characteristics of socialists and look forward with great expectation of converting the entire settlement in that portion of the valley.

A man named Idling, who was at work discharging coal on the Martha Fisher, was struck by a chunk of coal yesterday and received a cut on the head. The wound bled profusely, but was not of a serious nature, and the man returned to work as soon as it was dressed. Considering the amount of work done alongshore and around the docks there are very few serious accidents happen to the men engaged.

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY.

The Quarterly Meeting Held Yesterday—A Good Attendance.

Various Matters of Interest Discussed, Including Grape Culture, Codlin Moth, and Other Pests That Trouble Oregon Orchards.

The quarterly meeting of this society was held at the council chamber Tuesday, April [illegible]. President Cardwell in the chair. There was a good attendance, including Mr. Roberts, Mr. Shanno and Mr. Draper of The Dalles.

The president announced that Mr. A. R. Shipley would deliver an address, giving his experience with grapes, as he is one of the most experienced vineyardists in this valley. He [illegible] many varieties of grapes, and from his experience he concluded that only the Concord, Delaware and white Muscadine were varieties that paid well for planting. If you plant for market plant paying varieties. If for home use try a variety. The Hartford prolific is very hardy, but not as good as others for eating. The Isabella is an early grape but not the finest. The Isabella comes late and often does not mature, but last year was favorable and they ripened well. They keep all the winter and are valuable for that. The [illegible] is a good keeper but not equal to the Isabella. The Catawba does not do well here. Our people like the foxy taste of native grapes, as Concord and Isabella. It is best to raise them close to the ground so that the warmth the earth exudes during the night may aid to ripen them.

Grapes do not need sunshine here in Western Oregon. Reference was made by Mr. Shanno and Mr. Dosch to the way vineyards are managed in the old country.

The muscat of Alexandria does well. He has an acre and a quarter of them and sold $660 worth of fruit at 4 cents a pound. The chasselas rose makes bunches two to two and one-half pounds. (Mr. Shipley said his bunches often weigh four pounds.) The rose of Peru was as good as the muscat of Alexandria.

He sold twenty pounds of [illegible] to be sent to England, and they arrived there in good order after being six weeks on the way. The Black Hamburg was a good grape, equal to the others and orders always come for these three varieties.

Mr. Varnig, of The Dalles, said we need different varieties East of the mountains and have little use for the native varieties. The Concords never do well there. He valued above all the violet rose, which is earliest of all and sells high before any other grapes come. Grapes ripen nicely lying on the sandy soil of Eastern Oregon. Mr. Shanno can sell sweetwaters better than any others. Dr. Casto asked someone to explain how grapes should be cultivated. Mr. Shipley said grapes should be well cultivated, plow deep and cultivate well.

Mr. Dosch said the soil and climate of Germany greatly resembles Oregon. There they early in spring spade deeply, put manure close to the vines and leave it three weeks. The vines are staked meantime, then spread the manure. After bloom is over they cultivate well by hand. They prune very early.

Mr. Plummer said that a vine grower in California said in his hearing that he could raise and take care of an acre of grapes as cheaply as an acre of corn, or even less.

Judge Waldo believed in summer pruning and Mr. Henry Miller took the same position.

In the afternoon the society discussed at length the codlin moth, and covered the ground THE OREGONIAN has repeatedly stated in connection with reports made of meetings of The Dalles Horticultural society and the Horticultural society.

The Dalles gentlemen gave their success in spraying their apple orchards and saving their fruit last year. They sprayed as many as four times. Mr. Roberts [illegible] had come here to be in sympathy with this [illegible] and work with [illegible]. They [illegible] horticultural [illegible] and hoped a suitable person would be appointed.

Mr. Draper [illegible] four [illegible] more [illegible] so we should not [illegible].

[illegible] to the caterpillar that [illegible] the county [illegible] to eating [illegible] of fruit.

[illegible] explained that they had tried [illegible] where they found on the [illegible]. When they are grown they [illegible] of the trees and [illegible] and easily destroyed.

The aphis that has [illegible] the apple trees for many years was then discussed and different solutions [illegible]. A solution of lye had proved effectual with Mr. Dosch, as his trees are clean this year [illegible] black with aphis except [illegible]. Mr. Roberts [illegible] successfully. Dr. [illegible] washed his trees with a solution of one pound of lye to [illegible] gallons of water.

Efforts were made to get stock subscribed of the Oregon Fruit Union.

Professor [illegible], horticulturist of the agricultural college, was present and joined occasionally in the talk.

The society adjourned to meet the second Tuesday in July.

CIRCUIT COURTS, SECOND DISTRICT.

There appears to be a misunderstanding in the counties of Lane and Douglas especially as to the time of holding circuit courts in the second judicial district. The lawyers in these counties are aware that the old law was repealed and a new one enacted by the last legislature, fixing the [illegible] that they would be more convenient [illegible] exists great diversity of opinion as to when the new law goes into effect. The county clerk of Lane county, replying to a letter from a lawyer of this city, says court will be held there under the old law and that the new law has not gone into effect.

Should this be done such term of court would be clearly illegal, and business transacted during such term would be null and void. It is not probable that illegal terms of court will be held, however, for Judge Bean undoubtedly knows the provisions of the new law. It was senate bill [illegible], introduced by Fullerton and containing an emergency clause providing that it take effect from and after its approval by the governor. It passed both houses without amendment and received the governor's approval while the legislature was still in session.

For the information of all concerned THE OREGONIAN publishes the full text of the new law:

Be it Enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1.—That the terms of the circuit court of the several counties of the second judicial district shall be held annually as follows:

In the county of Benton, on the second Monday in March, fourth Monday in June and second Monday in November.

In the county of Douglas, on the fourth Monday in March, second Monday in July, and first Monday in December.

In the county of Lane, on the fourth Monday in February, second Monday in June and fourth Monday in October.

In the county of Coos, on the first Monday in May and first Monday in October.

In the county of Curry, on the third Monday in May.

SEC. 2.—That all acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

SEC. 3.—Inasmuch as the present times for holding circuit court in the counties of this district [illegible] this act shall be in force and effect from and after its approval by the governor.

EAST SIDE NEWS ITEMS.

A Statement Concerning the Grading and Improvement of Fifth Street.

Terra Cotta Pipes to Drain Asylum Creek—Off On a Trip—Brick Supply—Gives Better Light.

Mr. J. W. Kerns made quite an extended statement in the city council Monday night, in which he said it was desired to complete the improvement of Fifth street south of Stephens slough. That portion of the street was graded on a grade agreed to by the property holders, and now it is proposed to complete the improvement by grading the same. That street should be graded from U street to the bridge also. It was stated some time ago that the property holders were willing to have it done, but as yet nothing has been done. The street railway is in the center of the street, and the crosswalks have been built. This leaves the street in a bad condition that can only be remedied by grading. It would be far better to have Fifth street graded from U to Judge Woodward's place.

The street car line will be extended to Judge Woodward's place, where the sharp grade just north of Stephens has been modified.

BABY HOME CONCERT.

The following is the programme of the concert that will be given at the M. E. church this evening, beginning at 8 o'clock:

Children's Chorus—"Lullaby"
Forty little girls (in costume)
Vocal Solo—"The Old, Old Song"	Malloy
Mrs. [illegible] Ballard
Vocal Duet—"[illegible] and Love [illegible]"	Campana
Mrs. Wetzell and Mrs. T. C. Powell
Male Chorus	Selected
Vocal Solo—"The [illegible]"	[illegible]
Mr. [illegible] Mills
Recitation	Selected
Mrs. C. N. [illegible]
Vocal Solo—"The Ballad Singer"	[illegible]
Miss Lizzie Lloyd (in costume)
Vocal Duet—"Lullaby"	Sullivan
Ivy and Eva Johnson
Vocal Solo—a "[illegible] Slumber Land, Dreamland"; b "[illegible] From a Child's Garden of Verses"	Mrs. Wetzell
Male Chorus	Selected
Vocal Trio—"The Swallow"	Leslie
Mrs. Wetzell, Mrs. Miller and Miss Grace Lindsay.
Children's Chorus with Solo
Accompanist, Mrs. Dora Humphrey

The participants in this concert give their services gratuitously. The object is a worthy one. [illegible] all come out and aid in caring for the little ones.

AT ASYLUM CREEK.

Mr. George Brown, of the Hawthorne Avenue Railway Company, has been given the right to put in two eighteen inch terra cotta drains to carry Asylum creek under the fill proposed to be made at that place on Hawthorne avenue, instead of a bridge. From what was stated in the city council last night, it is supposed that the railroad company will make this fill without expense to the city, which is certainly liberal enough. When once built, a fill is permanent, and will not have to be replaced every few years. The two eighteen inch drains will carry away all the water that may come down the creek. Every one will rejoice at the prospect of the early completion of a means of crossing Asylum creek, as a constant inconvenience is being experienced while Hawthorne avenue is closed up at this point. The action in putting in this fill is creditable to the railroad company.

THREE BRICK KILNS.

There will soon be plenty of brick in the yards on the sandy road. Three kilns are now being burned in the three yards aggregating about a million of brick. There are several places where building operations have been delayed on account of there being no brick to be had even in small quantities.

THE ELECTRIC LIGHTS.

It has been observed for some time that the light on the corner of Sixth and G streets is much stronger than those anywhere else. The reason for this is that the glass bulb is taken off and it gives a better light. It is stated that the bulbs will be removed from the other lights in the city.

GONE ON A TRIP.

Mayor Wheeler left last night for a trip to Pendleton and Spokane Falls, returning by way of the sound. Being somewhat broken in health, he will travel about until he receives some improvement.

NOTES.

Rev. [illegible] S. Knight of Salem was in the city yesterday.

The crosswalks on O street are nearly completed, and a good job is being done.

The new [illegible] delegates will take their seats at the next regular meeting, which takes place one week from next Friday.

[illegible]

Mr. J. D. [illegible], formerly associated with Mr. [illegible] in the publication of the San Joaquin [illegible] at Stockton, Cal., is in the city, a guest of the latter.

FARMINGTON NOTES.

FARMINGTON, W. T., April 8.

Carpenters are in demand and the need of a [illegible] is being realized.

The elevator is nearing completion and will be one of the largest structures in town.

Rough lumber can now be obtained in town at from $10 to $11 per M., and large invoices are daily being shipped in.

The weather this week has been clear and beautiful and gardens are nearly planted. The early green vegetables are in the markets.

Farmers on every side are wearing smiling faces this week, and one and all are strong in their belief of farming [illegible] soon be in the [illegible] in the [illegible] country.

A good opening presents itself to some man with [illegible] to [illegible] and purchase a [illegible] and furnish [illegible] and contract to [illegible].

The [illegible] election proved a surprise to nearly everyone. The citizens [illegible] without a loss. Farmington now has a new set of officers, and it is hoped to see them taking rapid steps toward city improvements.

Scarcely a week passes but we are able to chronicle the arrival of [illegible] new business enterprise. This week one of Colfax's largest drug stores commenced removal to Farmington, where the proprietors will establish a first-class store.

The largest invoice of cutlery ever brought to town was received by [illegible] Tannatt this week. Freights have been reduced until we are able to ship from the East at better prices than we can obtain in Portland. Eastern drummers are numerous and are doing well.

A lot has been purchased near the depot for the erection of a restaurant. The passenger trains both east and west bound stop for meals, and this addition to the town will be quite an accommodation to the traveling public as well as to our farmers when hauling grain.

The machinery for the new planing mill has arrived, but the owner, Mr. [illegible], is still at the [illegible] too busy to find time to commence work on the structure. [illegible] is doing [illegible] his present [illegible] building. The machinery [illegible] at Colfax doing the same [illegible] in the mill there.

The Whitman hotel not proving sufficient to accommodate its patrons, [illegible] enlarged, and improvements are talked of in the Pioneer hotel. Farmington boasts of two of the finest hotels in the Palouse country, and what is [illegible] as good, they claim as large a patronage as any two hotels east of Portland, excepting in Spokane Falls.

Regardless of rapid growth and numerous improvements the price of lots in the various parts of the town are being held at low figures. A few persons own a very large portion of the [illegible] and they appreciate the importance of keeping the value of lots within the reach of all. Tekoa, a small town of perhaps seventy-five inhabitants, asks from $[illegible] to $600 for corner lots. Oakesdale, a town of one-third the size of this place, asks from $[illegible] to $600, while equally as desirable corner lots can be purchased in Farmington at from $100 to $150. The townsite proprietors are large owners in business properties and [illegible] new corner adds many a dollar toward the growth of the town. Many are purchasing dwelling and business lots and locating here who otherwise could ill afford to build.

(Little Pet)—O, I know; you're what they call "shopworn."

Few women can long stand the exertion of continuous shopping, while saleswomen, seamstresses, teachers, and overworked women generally, break down by thousands each year and are forced to quit work on account of nervous prostration, sick headache, weak back, female weakness, and other kindred derangements. LINNTON.

The old rival of the city of Portland arises from her long sleep.

The Portland Smelting Company has located on the site of the old town and soon the hum of a busy industry will there awake the echoes.

Work for an extensive smelting plant has already commenced, which will bring in its train many other enterprises, among which are grain warehouses, a sawmill, brick yard, stores, warehouses, etc. In short a busy thriving town.

No better location for the business can be found on the river below Portland as it is free from [illegible] and ravines [illegible] has reserved about thirty acres for the smelter which will be [illegible] working order as speedily as money and muscle will allow. The Oregonian.

PORTLAND, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 10.

THE FALSE "RACE ISSUE."

The New York Herald republishes from the New Mississippian an article which shows that only in two Southern states—Mississippi and South Carolina—are the colored voters now in a majority, and the Herald takes note of this article as proof that a leaven of common sense is working all over the South. We make the following extracts from the article in the Mississippi paper, viz:

> There is a group of six states that have sufficiently large majorities of white voters to render the colored vote of little or no importance, viz: Arkansas, Kentucky, North Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and West Virginia, and to these Florida may be added. Negro suffrage is practically but little more of a problem in these states than it is in Ohio or Indiana.
>
> There is still another group of three—Alabama, Georgia and Virginia—with large white majorities that are growing larger. These will soon cease to feel the disturbing influences of the negro vote.

Here then we have it, by the admission of a prominent Southern newspaper published in the black belt, that the so called "race issue" is a forced and fictitious one in the greater part of the South. We quote further:

> The indications are that as the Southern states with white majorities recede from the direct excitation that originally belonged to negro suffrage, their political affiliations will be indicated by public questions of essentially different characters. Their material interests will no[t] point them to the suffrage as a concern of dominating importance or even of secondary consequence. Ordinary questions of national politics will influence their sympathies as well as their actions.
> The South will not indefinitely remain solid. Disintegration is inevitable. A mere sentiment or memory will not prove a cohesive force strong enough to perpetuate unity of political politics in a nation where politics is governed by material interests. These things are as sure to happen as anything that can be predicted of the future.

A convention of Southern protectionists will be held at Chattanooga, Tenn., in May. Among the men prominent in getting up this convention are H. C. Parsons, a leading republican of Virginia, and Thomas Sedden, a democrat of Birmingham, Alabama. In a letter just published Mr. Parsons asserts that there are thirty five congressional districts in the South, the majority of whose voters believe in protection. Most of them, however, are represented in congress by free-traders, elected on the fictitious race issue which politicians are so assiduously nursing. Mr. Sedden, in a letter also published, agrees substantially with Mr. Parsons. The object of the Chattanooga convention as stated by them will be to concentrate efforts upon the election of protectionist representatives from the South and to break up the solidarity of that section.

Though a democratic paper, the New York Herald commends this effort to induce people in the South to vote as they think. A "break" in the South, the Herald says, will set Northern as well as Southern voters free to vote according to their convictions and not according to their prejudices as they have never done since the war. Further: "It is not against the South that Northern voters are prejudiced, but against the political solid South, which seems to them to aspire to rule the national policy by an unnatural political combination. Such a combination the North will with every election more unitedly resist, for Mr. Grady of Atlanta, said correctly that a solid South makes a solid North." Hence the Herald commends the Chattanooga convention as a natural and proper political movement.

The confession that the "race issue" is a bugbear or scarecrow continually conjured up by politicians is a hopeful sign of change in the South. Yet we cannot be very sanguine that the change will soon come in great force and power. Still as no prejudices are too deeply seated to yield to the influence of time and of changing conditions the South must "break up" eventually, and every movement in that direction hastens the final result.

ON FALSE GROUNDS

At Seattle and Tacoma there is said to be a delegation from towns in Eastern Oregon soliciting subscriptions to a subsidy for extension of Hunt's railroad from Walla Walla into Union county. One of the arguments for subscriptions to the subsidy is the desirability of shipping to the Sound rather than to Portland in order to save $2 per ton, which it costs to get wheat from Portland to the mouth of the Columbia.

We are glad to witness and to chronicle efforts to build more railroads. The more roads the better till all parts of the Northwest are penetrated and till the country is fully supplied with all necessary lines of transportation. If, therefore, the people of any locality are willing to hold out inducements in form of gifts of money or land for construction of additional railroads we can only wish them success in their endeavor and express the hope that the result may justify their undertaking.

But there should be no misrepresentation in soliciting subscriptions for such an object, nor should subscriptions be made on false information. The allegation that it costs $2 per ton to get wheat from Portland to the mouth of the Columbia [illegible] and consequently the statement that [illegible] to [illegible] leading [illegible] wheat from Portland to the mouth of the Columbia [illegible] most wheat shipped from Portland does it cost more to the mouth of the Columbia than it costs from Sound ports to Cape Flattery. Even when it is necessary to resort to lighterage from Portland the cost is only 50 cents per ton. Arrangements are now completed which make towage and pilotage as low on the Columbia river as on Puget Sound or even lower. Let Mr. Hunt build his road into Union county or elsewhere if he sees fit, and let those who desire so to [illegible] contribute gratuities thereto; but let there be no false statements to influence subscriptions, and no misrepresentations of existing lines of transport [illegible] by those who are seeking to [illegible] new ones. Let the country have all the railroads it can get, but let the truth be the basis of all efforts to create them.

A TRANSPARENT EXCUSE

Much comment has been made upon the fact that Prince Rudolph of Austria was, although a suicide, buried in consecrated ground with the customary requiem obsequies of the Church of Rome. A striking proof of the facility with which sophistry finds excuse for the violation of even its most inexorable dogmas when excuse is required for the great and powerful of earth is found in the explanation of the violation of the ecclesiastical law of the church in this notable instance. "Medical testimony," says the priest who essays this explanation, "proves that self murder was committed while the victim was suffering from mental derangement; hence, of course, the church makes an exception in his case."

This is a plea that might be offered just as plausibly for nine out of ten, or for ninety nine out of one hundred suicides, as for Prince Rudolph. The coroner's jury, superficial as is its investigation in a vast majority of cases, promptly reaches this conclusion, while common opinion, backed by the general approval of medical men, is strong in the belief that no man under any circumstances deliberately takes his own life when in health of mental condition. This being the fact the royal suicide is no more entitled to the favor of the church than is the wretched fool who, through the wanton perversion of all of life's blessings falls into despondency that results in the taking of his own life.

The judgment of the Crown Prince of Austria was no doubt warped, his conscience seared and his reason strained by his lawless course of life, including shameless amours and the gross violation of his marriage vows. But it is in evidence that he planned self destruction with the deliberation of a villain, if he executed it with the reckless courage of a maniac. The verdict of honor, of common decency, indeed the world over must be that suicide was the least of the crimes for which the church might have denied Christian burial to this royal but most ungodly sinner.

AN IMPRESSIVE CENTENARY EVENT

April 30, 1789, George Washington became first president of the United States. Preparations are making in all parts of the United States to celebrate the centennial of that event. The first movement in that direction in Oregon, so far as we know, has been taken in Portland by the board of trade. There will be a celebration here.

It is important that adequate preparation be made. That all our citizens will be glad to assist there can be no doubt. The occasion is one that appeals with peculiar force to the patriotism of all. The formation of our Constitution, the consolidation of our Union and the inauguration of our first President marked an epoch in the history of the world.

Congress has passed an act declaring the day—Tuesday, April 30, of the present year—a general holiday. A great celebration, in which the president of the United States will participate, will be held at New York, with appropriate exercises at the spot where Washington was inaugurated April 30, 1789, and in all parts of the country the day will be suitably observed. Business will be suspended everywhere, and the day will be observed generally, as patriotic ardor or the spirit of thanksgiving may suggest. Since there is to be special observance of the day at Portland we trust all citizens will join in making it an occasion of interest and a lesson in patriotism.

Ecuador has expressed her willingness to send delegates to the international congress, to which President Harrison has appointed commissioners and invited other American commonwealths. A conference of this kind was once projected by President John Quincy Adams, and again eight years ago by Mr. Blaine. Chili does not like the United States, because of our disposition to make peace between her and Peru in 1881, and Chili is strongly bound to England. The United States of Colombia are not pleased with our encouragement of the Nicaraguan canal. Uruguay is under English commercial influence. Peru, Venezuela, Bolivia and Central America are entirely friendly to the purpose of this international conference, and the New York Sun makes the statement that "we are certain of the hearty co operation of the Argentine Confederation, the most populous, flourishing, highly civilized, and progressive of the Spanish speaking states of South America. There is no doubt that by a reciprocity treaty between the United States and the Buenos Ayres government, for instance, both parties would profit, for our manufactures would find a large expanding market in the Argentine Confederation, whose raw products, on the other hand, would flow to New York instead of to London."

Another fiendish, and as far as the records show totally unprovoked, murder is reported from Grant county. The victim, who had sheltered and befriended the murderer, was shot while sleeping, his offense being a request to his self invited guest to go to work or settle for his winter's board. Being one of a numerous class, a few of whom have lately become notorious as convicts by self inflicted injuries that they hoped would save them from the odium of toil, the ingrate revenged the insult by creeping upon his benefactor, Winchester in hand, and shooting him while he slept. There is a loud demand for the legal use of hemp in Grant county, and unless it is obeyed by the authorities a clumsy night job, hastily performed, is one of the possibilities of the not distant future. The forbearance of any community is likely to reach its limit in a most unexpected and serious manner in regard to unpunished or inadequately punished crimes, and it is within the province, as it is the bounden duty, of the exponents and executors of the law to prevent a climax that all deplore by prompt and rigorous administration of penalty.

A scarcity of "Godly captains" is reported by the chaplain of the Seaman's Friend Society in this city. This is the first intimation that this public has ever received that the specified article was ever abundant here or elsewhere. As long as the commercial interests of a port are well, or indeed fairly served, the people do not stop to inquire concerning the creed or faith of the skippers, but the opinion prevails that in a general way nautical life is not especially conducive to piety of the fervent and devotional type that was a distinguishing trait of the early Christian martyrs. This being the case the shock occasioned by the chaplain's announcement was not serious.

Governor Semple of Washington territory—possibly his last official act—has issued a proclamation calling upon the people of the territory to render thanksgiving to God on the 30th of April, the one hundredth anniversary of the inauguration of George Washington as president of the United States. The governor says: "Let us beseech Almighty God to look with favor upon us, the people of Washington territory, during the critical period upon which we are about to enter, when we must form a constitution and law for time's noblest offspring," the state of Washington.

San Francisco reports a case of suicide from remorse, because the victim, having sworn off, forgot his pledge and went back to his cups. A conscience such as this is phenomenal. It is appalling in one sense to reflect upon the decimation of the masculine portion of the human race that would result should remorse from this cause, and in the degree indicated, become general. War and pestilence would be ashamed of the comparatively meager figures of their contribution in the presence of a harvest of remorse so abundant and ghastly.

The London Economist publishes a statement of the financial condition of ten Scottish cattle companies whose bands and herds are in our Western states and territories. In 1887 not one of them paid a dividend. In 1888 three of the companies declared dividends ranging from fifty cents to a dollar and a quarter per share, while the remaining seven, with one exception, increased their indebtedness. The Economist remarks that several of the companies are still in very low water. We may hope that these results will "encourage" the foreign cattle companies to quit.

What is this? Representatives of the various labor organizations boycotting Weinhard's beer. Now if they can enforce the boycott and extend it to all beer, without regard to the name or methods of the [illegible], there will be a chance for the [illegible] to save some money, and the trades unions to confer an unwonted benefit upon their members.

The unusually low stage of water at this season of the year gives the government snag boat Willamette a chance to do good service on the channel below Corvallis. Railroads, though active agents in the development of the country and generally approved as the only means of transportation that can be depended upon to make a market for the products of the farm, cannot dispel the old fondness for river transportation that was engendered before the railroad era in the state. Hence the people of the minor river towns, and of the farming districts lying between, hail with interest the advent of the snag boat, and are pleased with the assurance of its officers that they will be able to keep the channel of the upper Willamette open during the greater part of the season.

The Daily Evening Times-Mountaineer appeared at The Dalles on Monday last. It will aim to furnish an epitome of telegraphic news up to the hour of going to press, full local happenings, and a general resume of the latest items of news in this state and neighboring territory. The Dalles is certainly a business point of sufficient importance to support a local daily.

The Boston Herald has made an exhaustive canvass throughout Massachusetts to ascertain the drift of public sentiment on prohibition. It concludes that the proposed amendment will be rejected by a very large majority. The vote will be taken April 22.

AN ATROCIOUS DEED.

Three Masked Robbers Torture a Man to Secure His Money.

BUTLER, Pa., April 9.—Lewis Patterson, a prominent and wealthy farmer living near Centerville, was robbed last night by three masked men. There was nobody in the house at the time but he and his mother, 80 years old. The three men called to Patterson to come out, and upon his refusing to do so burst in the door.

Patterson felled the first man to enter with a poker, but the others overpowered him. The robbers then tortured him by burning his face and feet to make him tell where he kept his money, but to no purpose, as Patterson insisted that he had none. They then searched the house, and after securing $40 in money and Patterson's gold watch departed, declaring that if he moved until they were gone one half hour he would be shot dead.

There is no positive clue to the desperadoes. But every effort will be made to run them down. There is a firm determination among the citizens to prevent a series of Fayette county outrages from being perpetrated in this county.

For beauty, for comfort, for improvement of the complexion use only Pozzoni's Powder; there is nothing equal to it.

[illegible] OF A PASTOR.—Rev. W. [illegible] has signified his intention of discontinuing the pastorate of the Mizpah Presbyterian church after the 1st of May. Mr. Morrison has now been two years in the field, and during that time the progress of the work has been satisfactory. The congregation have now a more comfortable [illegible] church than they possessed at the time of Mr. Morrison's arrival. Some time [illegible] Markle of this city donated a 500-pound bell, and a few weeks since the congregation purchased a new organ. It is understood the [illegible] will be the Rev. C. Shields of Eastern Oregon. At a congregational meeting held a week ago the congregation requested Mr. Morrison to remain, but he declined. Many of the members of the church regret his loss, as he made many warm friends during the time he had charge of the church.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S METHODIST ALLIANCE.—A local organization of the Young People's Methodist Alliance has been effected at the Adams street M. E. church with forty five members. The following are the officers elected: George [illegible], president; Lurea Faust, vice president; Frank C. Routledge, secretary; [illegible] treasurer. PORTLAND AND VICINITY.

SCIENTIFIC NAMES OF PLANTS.—Everybody has noticed the beautiful flowering shrub so common in the vicinity whose beautiful rose red flowers are among the very earliest seen here. It is commonly known as the Flowering Currant, but scarcely any one can give its scientific name. Mr. L. Newton who takes an interest in such matters, forwarded some of the flowers to an Eastern florist who writes back that the shrub is the Ribes Sanguineum. A description of the shrub and flowers is to be found in Woods' botany, where it is styled a native of Oregon, and the name of Rev. Geo. H. Atkinson is credited with having called Prof. Woods' attention to the flower. Mr. Newton also forwarded specimens of the little white flower so extensively used for borders, and which is known as California Snowdrop, Rock Candytuft or Saxifrage. This he is informed is the Arabis Alpinus. In Woods' botany several species of Arabis or Rock Cress are described, but Arabis Alpinus is not among them. The plant can properly be called Rock Cress. Mr. Peter Henderson, Mr. Newton's correspondent, states that he has had both the flowers above mentioned under cultivation for many years, and that they have been in cultivation for over a hundred years.

INSANE ON ONE SUBJECT.—Considerable doubt has existed for some time as to the sanity or insanity of Henry Isensee, the man lately committed to the county jail for contempt of court, by Justice Tuttle, for refusing to obey the court's order, after being ejected, to keep off of certain property owned by the H. M. Humphrey estate on Portland Heights. The man has an insane idea, that he is the lawful owner of the property in question, which comprises some two acres, and threatens to again take forcible possession of it as soon as liberated from jail. Under direction of County Judge Catlin, Drs. Panton and Josephi yesterday examined Isensee to determine his mental condition, but all questions put to him were sensibly answered, with the exception of those referring to the Humphrey property, which he claims by right of a deed from the late Mr. Humphrey, who, he claims, gave him the disputed land in consideration for services rendered. He will not likely be committed to the asylum.

SEVENTEEN DAYS UNDER WATER.—The body of James Burns, the 8-year-old boy who was drowned off the foot of Oak street while playing with a companion on the forenoon of Saturday, March 23, was recovered in the river near Ash street yesterday afternoon. The body was seen floating in the river by a deckhand on the steamer Orient at about 5 o'clock. Several men passing by in a row boat were hailed and by them the body was secured by tying it to a pile at the Ash street dock. The coroner was then notified and the remains were taken to the morgue, where they will be prepared for burial. It is somewhat of a mystery where the body has been all this time. It will be remembered that the river was dragged in the vicinity of the supposed drowning, and in addition Captain Paul Boyton exploded several dynamite bombs, but all without avail. The parents of the unfortunate boy live at the corner of Fourth and Salmon streets.

RESIGNATION OF A PASTOR.—Rev. William Morrison has signified his intention of discontinuing the pastorate of the Mizpah Presbyterian church after the 1st of May. Mr. Morrison has now been two years in the field, and during that time the progress of the work has been satisfactory. The congregation have now a more comfortable and fully equipped church than they possessed at the time of Mr. Morrison's arrival. Some time ago Mr. G. B. Markle, of this city, donated a 500-pound bell, and a few weeks since the congregation purchased a new organ. It is understood the new pastor will be the Rev. C. Shields, of Eastern Oregon. At a congregational meeting held a few weeks ago, the congregation requested Mr. Morrison to remain, but he declined. Many of the members of the church regret his loss, as he has made many warm friends during the time he had charge of the church.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S METHODIST ALLIANCE.—A local organization of the "Young People's Methodist Alliance" has been effected at the Adams-street M. E. church, with forty-five members. The following are the officers elected: George A. Prentiss president, Lucea Faust vice president; Frank C. Routledge secretary, Nettie A. Brown treasurer. The chairmen of the various committees are as follows: Committee of invitation, Hilton E. Dunseth; floral committee, Iona B. Buckmaster; press committee, Lorena A. Fosset; visiting committee, Julia Ambrose; literature committee, Maggie C. Prentiss. Associate directors, F. L. Posson, Mary E. Sutherland. The meetings of the alliance are to be held every Monday evening at the Adams-street M. E. chapel.

FOR THE GRAIN ELEVATOR.—Mr. J. A. McLennan, who has the contract to build a grain elevator just south of the coal bunkers, on the East Side, of the capacity of a million bushels, is in the city, and is negotiating for the necessary lumber. Work will be commenced next week. The building will be 313x68 feet and about 125 feet high. The original contract was for an elevator of the capacity of half a million bushels, to be completed by August, but since the capacity was changed to a million bushels the time for completion has been extended to September 1. This is to be the terminal elevator of F. H. Peavey's system of elevators along the lines of the O. R. & N. Co., twenty-five of which are to be completed this season and a number of which are now under way.

TO BE EXAMINED.—Captain C. Sebree arrived here yesterday from the Sound. The Manzanita which has been in the dry dock at Esquimalt to have a new propeller put in, was to sail from Seattle yesterday for the Columbia. Captain Sebree came over to meet his old classmate and shipmate Lieutenant-Commander F. P. Gilmore, who arrived here yesterday from Washington, where he has been to pass the examination consequent upon his promotion. He is inspector of the steel used in the cruiser Charleston being built at San Francisco, and is now returning to his post. Captain Sebree will go to San Francisco in a few days to pass the examination attendant on his promotion.

A BADLY MANGLED HAND.—A young man named Frank Tutsworth started in his career as a mill hand at Sellwood, yesterday morning, going to work in a sawmill in that town. All went well until along in the afternoon, when he became too familiar with a buzz saw, caressing it with his left hand. As a result, that useful member was pretty badly "chawed" up. Tutsworth was brought to this city and taken to St. Vincent's hospital. Dr. William Jones was summoned, who on examining the hand, found it necessary to amputate the index finger, but he has hopes of saving the others. Moral: Don't be too familiar with a buzz saw. It is treacherous.

GET THERE "JOHN."—A number of the more influential denizens of Chinatown have been seized with the spirit of enterprise within the past few days, that has inspired them to make some much-needed improvements. A large portion of the old sidewalk on the west side of Second street and near the corner of Alder, has been torn up and replaced with new planks. This is a timely repair, for the old walk, through wear, tear and decay, was in a bad state of dilapidation. The improvements give that quarter an appearance of substantiality rarely met with about Chinese habitations.

ARM FRACTURED.—Louis Delschneider, the 13-year-old son of the grocer of that name, at the corner of Lincoln and Sixth streets, fell from the roof of a two story building Sunday evening breaking his right arm at the elbow so that the bone protruded through the skin. Notwithstanding the agony he suffered the lad walked ten blocks to the residence of Dr. Giltner where his injury was attended to and he was then sent to Good Samaritan hospital. There is danger of his arm having to be amputated, but his parents hope that this will not be necessary.

MOONLIGHT EXCURSION AND PICNIC.—The first moonlight excursion and picnic of the season will be given to Vancouver, under the auspices of the Ladies' Union Relief Society, of Albina, Saturday, April 13. Fare for the round trip will be 50 cents; children under 12 years, 25 cents. The steamer Salem has been engaged and will leave [illegible] wharf at 9 o'clock A. M., returning at about 9 o'clock. The boat will not leave Vancouver until after the dress parade at the garrison. Persons from Portland can be landed by the steamers Cyclone or Alarm at the dock.

THE AGENT ARRIVED.—Mr. Alexander McKay, agent of Mr. David Miles, recently appointed by the Scottish court of sessions liquidator of the Oregonian Railway Company, will arrive to-day. His business is to go over and examine the roads and to gather all possible information concerning them to present to the liquidator when he shall arrive here. It has been suggested that the title of this official should be "Eliminator" instead of liquidator, but it will probably be found that the terms are synonymous.

TWO TRAINS DAILY.—Travel between Portland and San Francisco overland has increased so much that one train per day each way is no longer sufficient to accommodate it. It is stated on good authority that the Southern Pacific Company will between now and the 1st of May put on two trains each way, one starting in the morning and the other in the evening from each end. This will be a great accommodation to the traveling public, and the change will be hailed with delight by the people along the road.

A GOOD SCHEME.—Those little stakes that are springing up like mushrooms all over those beautiful Edendale lots, mark the ones that have been sold. A very marked feature in the sale of this particular tract is that ladies are buying freely. One lady took four lots yesterday. All the lots ask is that you look at them; they will sell themselves on by their merit. Mr. Cummings, the gentlemanly superintendent of the grounds, will meet you at the entrance of Edendale and show you through this most charming spot.

INTERESTING FEATURES.—The Industrial Fair association has received proposals from parties at the East who wish to exhibit at the coming fair a [illegible]making machine, and a silk-weaving machine. These will form new and interesting features of a fair here.

NIPPED THE BLOSSOMS.—The slight frost a night or two since nipped early strawberry blossoms in some localities, but did no serious damage.

It is a settled fact that central Albina, as well as Multnomah addition, will be the great mark in the near future.

LIQUIDATED THE BILLS.—United States Marshal Myers yesterday paid the bills of the state penitentiary and Sheriff Kelly for the keep of United States prisoners for the quarter ending March 31. The number of United States prisoners confined in the penitentiary during the quarter was eighteen, of whom six were discharged. The bill amounted to $842 85. In the county jail fifty United States prisoners were confined, of whom thirty-six were discharged. The bill for their entertainment amounted to $899 25.

APPOINTED GENERAL MANAGER.—Mr. C. J. Smith, formerly comptroller of the O. R. & N. Co., and at present general land commissioner of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, at Omaha, has been appointed general manager of the O. R. & N. Co., to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of W. H. Holcomb who finds that he has enough to do as general manager of the Union Pacific system. Mr. Smith's appointment will take effect on May 1.

MRS. BARNSEE MISSING.—Mrs. Barnsee, a German woman residing at No. 75 Fourth street, corner of E, left her home Monday night between 9 and 12 o'clock, and has not been seen or heard from since. The woman is slightly insane and during an attack no doubt strayed away from her home. She speaks but very little English. Her husband, Charles Barnsee, would be glad to receive any information as to her whereabouts.

LEG BROKEN.—Yesterday morning, as car No. 7 was passing up First street, one of Magoon's hack teams, standing in front of the Occidental hotel, swung out from the sidewalk and one of them placed its fore feet on the platform of the car, the pole of the carriage striking the car driver and knocking him off the car. One of the carriage horses, a beautiful animal, had one of his fore-legs broken below the knee.

FIRST STREET PROPERTY SOLD.—The Wiley B. Allen Music Company bought yesterday the lot and building in which they are located, at 211 First street, and will soon add another story to the building so as to enlarge their business. The agency for several new pianos and organs are to be located with them, and their general stock of musical instruments will be more than doubled.

DEATH OF MRS. J. R. WHEAT.—Intelligence has been received from Spokane Falls announcing the death of Mrs. Wheat, wife of Colonel J. R. Wheat, at the Grand hotel in that city. Mrs. Wheat is said to have died of pneumonia late Saturday night. She was a woman well known and highly esteemed by a large circle of friends in this city.

WILL BE BURIED HERE.—Mr. Edward Holman has gone after the remains of Mrs. Mary Ross Watt Naylor, who died in North Yamhill several days ago. Mrs. Naylor was the daughter of Ahio Watt of this city. The body will arrive on the morning train, and the interment will take place at Riverview cemetery.

FOUR VALUABLE BOOKS.—Mr. John Trautweind who was recently elected an honorary member of the Society of Civil Engineers and Architects of the Northwest, has forwarded to the society four valuable books, of which he is the author, to form the nucleus of a library. The works are highly appreciated by the members of the society.

GOT STEAM UP HIGH.—Mr. E. D. Comings, a capitalist of St. Paul, who has been in the business of government contracting for years, is in the city. He represents a large amount of capital, and has been looking over the Northwest for a chance for investment. He thinks they have got steam up pretty high on the Sound.

THIRTY-SIXTH ANNIVERSARY.—The celebration of the thirty-sixth anniversary of the organization of Samaritan lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., this evening, is expected to be a very enjoyable affair. An interesting programme has been prepared for the occasion and there will be no lack of good cheer.

HANDKERCHIEF SALE.—Over 1000 dozen Handkerchiefs will be placed on sale to-morrow at J. Selling & Co's., Colored Border Hemstitch 5c, Ladies white Linen Hemstitch 10c, Linen Embroidered 12½c, Gents Linen Hemstitch 12½c. About half price.

SECOND ANNUAL CONVENTION.—The second annual convention of the National Guard Association of the state of Oregon, will convene in this city Tuesday morning, April 30, and probably remain in session during Wednesday.

PORTLAND WEDNESDAY, APRIL 10

THE SAMOAN QUESTION

George H Bates the democratic member of the American delegation to the Berlin Samoan conference who was sent as special commissioner to Samoa in 1886 expresses his views concerning this controversy in the April Century. Mr Bates thinks that the subject chiefly concerns the future interests of the Pacific coast and he regards the neutrality of Samoa of no greater distance from the isthmus of Panama and lying more immediately on the track of future commerce with Australasia as of greater importance than even that of Hawaii. He recites these facts viz: In 1872 Commander Meade U S N entered into an agreement with Mauga the great chief of Tutuila under which there was granted to this government the exclusive privilege of a naval station for the use and convenience of the vessels of the United States government and it was expressly stipulated that a like privilege should not be granted to any other foreign power or potentate. The consideration of this grant was the friendship and protection of the great government of the United States of America. In January 1878 a treaty was entered into between the governments of the United States and Samoa in which the right of the United States to the use of the port of Pago Pago was solemnly affirmed. And in another article the government of the United States undertook to employ its good offices for the purpose of adjusting any differences which might thereafter arise between the Samoan government and any other government.

The German treaty of 1879 only gave that nation a coaling station in the worthless harbor of Saluafata, while the British treaty of 1879 gave that nation the right to a coaling and naval station on the shores of a Samoan harbor to be thereafter designated excluding expressly the harbors of Apia and Saluafata and that part of the harbor of Pago Pago to be selected by the United States as a station under the provisions of its treaty. These facts are worth reciting for they make it plain that the United States has received by the treaty the only really safe and valuable harbor in Samoa. This goes far to explain why the Germans have been disposed to find fault with American influence there. The foresight of Commander Meade secured for his country the finest harbor in the South Pacific and the Germans know it, so they have been doing their best to create a disturbance hoping that out of it would come the termination of the treaty that gave Samoa's best harbor to the United States.

Concerning the disputed question of the application of the Monroe doctrine Mr Bates says that "if by any technicality whether of reasoning or of expression the Monroe doctrine is to be limited to exclude Samoa we may trust the genius of our people to find some new doctrine which legitimately succeeding that of 1823 will adjust itself to our changed condition and protect our national interests from the tendencies of Great Britain and Germany which not content with desiring as much as they can seize of the earth have actually entered into a solemn covenant to divide and make partition of the sea."

Our government cannot without dishonor retreat from its present position that no adjustment of the internal affairs of Samoa should be made except by the consent of our government. The moment that an isthmian canal is completed Mr Bates declares Hawaii must resign to Samoa the key of the maritime dominion of the Pacific. We have already committed ourselves to maintenance by force, if necessary of the neutrality of Hawaii and having by our naval foresight acquired the right to insist on Samoan neutrality we cannot either in honor or public policy hesitate to enforce it. And we are in a condition to enforce it. France and Russia are eagerly watching for an opportunity to strike Germany: the German steamship lines would be an easy prey to our cruisers for against France Germany's navy could not keep the sea for a moment. Germany will never dare go to war with the United States over Samoa unless she succeeds in making an offensive and defensive alliance with England who alone of the powers of Europe can effectually oppose the navy of France. This alliance with England will hardly be accomplished by Germany because it would be bitterly resisted not only by the liberals but by the Australian colonies of Great Britain who denounce the German policy in Samoa as vigorously as does the United States. England has nothing to gain by an alliance with Germany while if she stands by Germany in an unjust quarrel with the United States over Samoa she makes an enemy of the one great nation in the world that by blood language moral and social sympathies is her most natural and therefore her best friend. Germany could afford to promise anything to England to secure her navy and her purse but England would be a fool to invite the needless hostility of France Russia and the United States. Russia is stronger to-day than she was a year ago for the Russian party to-day controls Servia and Roumania. Bulgaria is the only friend Austria has left among the Danubian and Balkan states and Bulgaria is Russian at heart.

The United States has only to insist on the neutrality of Samoa and to refuse to recognize any internal settlement of its affairs to which the United States is not a party to bring Germany to terms.

A MENACE TO THE RACE

Physiologists of a humane bent of mind have for some years devoted much care and study to the unhealthfulness of the dress of women, the suffering that it entails upon them individually and the consequent physical degeneracy of the race. While the tendency of the dress reformer is to become enthusiastic to a degree of silliness that invites ridicule there is no doubt but the general premises upon the unhealthfulness of woman's apparel are correct.

Starting out with the proposition that tight bands unyielding stays and heavy weights interfere with the circulation hamper the respiration and weaken the vital forces the physiologist wanders off into details that [illegible] the reader or listener to wonder how it happens that in this great world of corsets whalebones and petticoats there is one woman alive and when a rapid survey of the field [illegible] that there is not one but a vast multitude he begins vaguely to wonder whether the horrors and fatalities of feminine apparel have not been overdrawn.

There is no doubt however that many of the daily ails of women many of their more acute sufferings and much of the physical weariness that oppresses them in the discharge of their daily avocations are due to the constriction of their chests the compression of their waists and the general drag put upon their movements by heavy skirts and shoes with high heels and narrow soles. Not of course that any one of these things or all combined ever hurt the individual woman. Her positive assurance is in evidence to the contrary but that the masses of women suffer from one or more of them is undeniable.

It is admitted, for example, that a majority of the girls and women who are employed in dry goods stores (in other cities of course) are prevented by stiff and tight stays—literally named—from stooping squarely to pick up a pencil which they chance to drop or by tight sleeves from taking anything from a shelf higher than their heads. In this city it is true they execute an old fashioned "courtesy" when anything gets out of their reach by falling on the floor, or call a male clerk to take down a box of buttons from the third shelf but it is habit merely not the necessities of their dressed up condition that causes them to do so.

Fortified as he is with argument and amply provided with illustration concerning the evils that accrue to the race generally and to the feminine portion of it in particular from the folly of fashionable dress the obstacles that lie in the path of the dress reformer seem to be insurmountable. In the first place habit is strong and fashion is inexorable. In the second place no style of reform dress has yet been devised which according to the critical judgment of men a woman will pass muster as handsome or as becomingly dressed. Then the vagaries of the extremists come in and make caricatures of a few bold or courageous women giving ridicule a chance to enter the field and progress in the direction of health in dress is blocked.

But more serious even than the stiff things that fashion entails upon her immediate votaries are those that form the promised heritage of posterity. True fashion is not the only factor that is working out a heritage of ills for future generations nor is it indeed the chief one but judging from the notes of warning that voice his fears, the physiologist, who is also a humanitarian, has a belief that he considers well grounded that the vices of men and the follies of women have formed a grand combination the purpose of which is in due process of time to exterminate the race. Whether this will be a disaster or not is a matter of opinion. Certainly it will not be deplorable from a material standpoint if folly and vice are to be as the pessimistic physiologist declares the joint arbiters of human destiny.

Professor Pasteur claims to have discovered the active germ of diphtheria which he keeps securely bottled in his institute in Paris. His attempts to vaccinate with this deadly virus have thus far proved swiftly and terribly fatal—a number of rabbits and dogs, and a few poor friendless outcasts in hospitals having suffered death in the experiment. There seems to be no doubt as to the discovery of the microbe, but its utility as a prophylactic does not appear to be demonstrable. If the learned scientist could devise some ready means for collecting the microbes and then bottle them securely he would confer a blessing upon an anxious world that he does not seem to be able to bestow through the prophylactic business that he has made a specialty.

FAILED TO MATERIALIZE

The Scheme to Keep Chicago's New Mayor Out Did Not Work.

CHICAGO April 9—The proposed scheme to keep Mayor-elect Cregier out of office by having last Tuesday's election declared illegal did not materialize this morning. The lawyer who applied for an injunction last evening and who was told by Judge Jamieson to come into court this morning did not appear. Mayor Roach when asked about the matter said he had no desire to take any advantage of the situation that as soon as it should appear that he was no longer mayor he would vacate. The question was as to the validity of the title of the democratic candidates in the recent elections. It might be necessary for the outgoing officers to seek protection and assure themselves of the legality of their action before turning the offices over to their democratic successors.

ON THE ISTHMUS

The Expected Trouble Has Not and Will Not Occur

WASHINGTON April 9—The secretary of state has been informed by Adamson United States consul general at Panama, that the trouble feared on account of the stoppage of work on the canal, has not occurred but good order prevails in that locality. The consul says that great railroads are soon to be built in Chili and American capital is projecting extensive work of a similar nature in Jamaica. He says the Panama Canal Company is ordering work done at several points on the line of the canal, for the purpose of preventing questions arising from the total abandonment of the project.

AN AGREEMENT REACHED

German and American Troops at Samoa Will Not be Reinforced

NEW YORK April 9—A Washington special to the Mail and Express says: Your correspondent has it from the very highest authority that an agreement has been reached by the state department and German foreign office, and there will be no reinforcements of vessels or troops belonging to the two governments now on duty at Samoa. This agreement will be in force until the Samoan commission has finished its labors. It is understood the proposition for an agreement came direct from Bismarck to Secretary Blaine.

Settlers Preparing to Resist Attempts to Eject Them

FORT DODGE Iowa April 9 The United States marshal and posse are preparing to push the eviction. They are only waiting for clear weather to remove the settlers from their homes. Of 100 writs of ejection placed in the marshal's hands only six have been so far served. The settlers are preparing for the coming of the marshal and unless they are overpowered or impressed with the uselessness of opposition, some stirring times will follow the first movement of the marshal in the disturbed districts.

A FRAUDULENT ASSIGNMENT.

A Firm Charged With Disposing of $160,000 Worth of Goods Before Failing.

NEW YORK April 9—Henry Rothchilds & Co special partners in the firm of Downs & Finch shirt manufacturers who assigned last week have begun action to set aside the assignment on account of fraud. It is claimed that Downs & Finch on the eve of the assignment disposed of $160 000 worth of the firm's property. The court appointed a receiver who has taken possession.

"BREWAGE UNDER BAN."

Paul Wessinger, Mr Weinhard's Manager, Interviewed on the "Boycott"

He Talks Freely on the Subject—He Thinks the Federated Trades Assembly Did Not Act Fairly in the Matter

The Federated Trades Assembly of this city at their meeting Monday evening having in the plenitude of their power seen fit to place Mr Henry Weinhard's beer under the ban, in other words to boycott it, a reporter called at Mr Weinhard's office yesterday to inquire the cause of this action or whether there was any just cause for it. He was informed that Mr Weinhard was confined to his bed too sick to have anything to do with the matter and was referred to Mr Paul Wessinger who has charge of the brewery during Mr Weinhard's illness for information.

In answer to the inquiry of the reporter Mr Wessinger said he did not consider that the assembly had any just cause for their action. The assembly claim that they have boycotted the beer for good and just cause and state that Mr Weinhard discriminates between union and non union men giving non union men the preference.

"The men employed here" said Mr Wessinger "have many of them been in Mr Weinhard's employ for years. They do not belong to the union and I cannot discharge them to give place to union men. I think too much of them. I have tried to do what was right and square by every one in this matter and to carry out Mr Weinhard's rule. As was stated in the letter addressed to the assembly by the master brewers we have no objection to employing union men but if our men do not wish to join the union we cannot discharge them on that account. I told the men employed here that I had no objection to their joining the union but they did not see fit to do so. I think it was an unfair and a cowardly thing for the assembly to endeavor to make trouble when Mr Weinhard is sick and unable to attend to his business personally."

"I notice that all the master brewers signed the letter to the assembly. Why is the boycott placed on Weinhard's beer only?"

"I cannot say. I attended two meetings of the assembly and at the first it was agreed that all the brewers should be placed on the same footing. At the second meeting I was the only brewer present. I was asked to sign a paper agreeing to employ only union men. I said that if all the other brewers would sign it I would take it upon myself to sign for Mr Weinhard."

"Are union men employed at any of the other breweries?"

"In the four breweries—Weinhard's Gambrinus United States brewery and the brewery at Vancouver—there are something over forty men employed and only four or five in one brewery belong to the union."

"Do you pay union prices and work the number of hours demanded by the union?"

"Mr Weinhard's employes are paid from 10 to 15 per cent more than the union rules require, and they work ten hours per day. Under these circumstances I cannot see the propriety of the assembly talking about supporting brewers in their struggle for existence.

"As the union rules are not infringed in these matters and as other brewers also employ non union men, it seems strange that the boycott was placed only on one brewery. I know of no reason for this, except probably they thought it better to try one brewery than all and supposed that if Mr Weinhard could be made to accede to their terms the others would be obliged to do likewise."

"Do you think the boycott will injure Mr Weinhard's business?"

"I don't imagine it will have much effect. We sell a great deal of beer all over the state, and I think this matter will act as an advertisement for it. I think the concern is too well known for any one to think that we would do anything wrong. There is no just cause for the boycott, and I cannot discharge faithful employes because they do not choose to join a union. I shall go ahead with the business as usual, until Mr Weinhard is able to attend to it himself. Then he can take such action as he pleases in this matter."

"How many men are employed here?"

"We have twenty four men besides drivers, and we use two car loads of barley every three days and over a bale of hops every day, all of which is raised in this state or Washington territory and the money for which goes direct into the hands of the farmers."

Mr Wessinger did not seem at all worried or excited in regard to the boycott but appeared to think the most unfair and unreasonable thing about it was the attempt on the part of the assembly to injure Mr Weinhard's business while he was unable to attend to it himself.

THE EVENING OF APRIL 30.

The First Regiment Arrange the Preliminaries for the Entertainment

A meeting of the general committee of the board of officers of the First regiment was held at the armory last evening, for the purpose of completing the preliminary arrangements for the opening of the Industrial fair building on the evening of April 30.

It has not yet been decided whether the association will formally declare the building open on this occasion or not but the [illegible] opening the building to the public for the first time under the auspices of the First regiment will be adhered to.

The entertainment of the evening will include the following military exercises with music at intervals from two and probably three bands and an orchestra.

Company B will open the exercises with a guard mount.

Company G will go through the movements of loading and firing.

Company I will give a skirmish drill by bugle call.

The military exercises will probably close with a dress parade, a grand promenade concert and dance terminating the entertainment. Those participating in the latter part of the programme will have the pleasure of gliding over a floor said to be second to none in the country.

In view of the elaborate preparations being made for the day celebration it is expected that the city will contain a large number of strangers, most of whom will attend the evening exercises.

NOTE AND COMMENT.

What a collapse it was on the isthmus when the De Lesseps scheme fell through. Everything had been life and animation thousands were at work when suddenly work stops the great machines lie still the human throng melts away and disappears and even the Panama railroad has almost stopped its trains as if by her there was excessive life and work now there is rust and idleness. All expectation centered in that enterprise and the people of that section depended on its success for the realization of their hopes. It must be a sorry sight to see all the costly machinery and material lying exposed to the weather wasting away under the changing influence of that tropic sun and the drenching storms of their rainy season. It is hardly possible that even the genius and invention of De Lesseps himself can revive the fallen fortunes of that wild scheme. It has only realized exactly what American engineers predicted when it was planned. France and Europe went wild over the scheme because De Lesseps risked his fame but the common sense stood no show and [illegible] De Lesseps [illegible] the climax comes to prove that Admiral Ammen was a much greater engineer than the exuberant Frenchman.

The Sacramento Bee editorially says of the late California legislature: The session just closed has displayed more brazen rascality more shameless disregard of every shred of principle more outright barter of every remaining fragment of honor [illegible] prostitution of female clerks, more open and notorious [illegible] on the part of members than has ever before disgraced a legislature. The honest members were like angels' visits—few and far between. The virtuous women were lost sight of in the general loose licentiousness [illegible] by the breath of slander. Nothing [illegible] can be charged against Oregon at least. We have no Chris Buckley to own a legislature and control it [illegible] Governor Waterman became [illegible] and went almost frantic over such performances.

The Chicago authorities are making an effort to separate young culprits from old and hardened criminals and others at the [illegible]. It is clearly necessary to prevent young persons who have made a mistake and gone wrong from learning from old villains what they know of vice. Some are not beyond hope but they soon will be if they are allowed to associate familiarly with the worst of men. It seems impossible to believe that humanity has been so slow to realize the duty the state owes itself in regard to its criminals. All these centuries it has made a common thing of it [illegible] and permitted the worst to corrupt the rest. Self preservation should teach the necessity of saving as many as possible and making good citizens of those who can be reformed.

A yield of thirty bushels to the acre is expected in Walla Walla county and wheat now sells at 60 cents a bushel so the income will be $18 an acre. The 150 000 acres now in crop is only a small proportion of the wheat land of that county. If the country could be farmed to its capacity cropping half of it one year and half the next, the yield would be enormous. The capacity of the Inland Empire is not taxed in any degree at present. If the country east of the [illegible] Oregon and Washington [illegible] land, that would make [illegible] there is that much [illegible] and Washington [illegible] or grazing and [illegible] The capacity [illegible] produce crops is fabulous [illegible] will manifest itself [illegible] is to grow wheat for no other crop will bring the money so unfailingly. That region has a much [illegible] acreage and more capacity to produce than California, acre for acre, for the wheat land of California much of it thin soil while our Eastern country has deep and rich soil that is far more productive and lasting.

The supreme court of California has decided that husbands and wives in the privacy of their homes may say what they please about other people and each other. A man and his wife being one what they say amounts to the same as if they were talking to themselves, that is, as if he or she was talking to himself or herself. It is consoling to know that a man and his wife cannot be prosecuted for talking [illegible] scandal at home in the privacy of their own room. But they must not talk in the parlor or the kitchen [illegible] before the children [illegible] their freedom of speech is limited to what is said alone by them [illegible] Between man and wife [illegible]

THE STORM IN MARYLAND

Appalling Loss of Life and Shipping Reported

BALTIMORE April 9—The storm which raged in Baltimore with such verity Saturday swept over the lower Chesapeake and was most disastrous to shipping. Over a dozen seamen lost their lives and thirty or forty vessels were wrecked. Reports of disasters to shipping, and loss of life continue to come in by arriving vessels and special dispatches.

The steamer Westmoreland reached her pier this morning from Patuxent river. Captain Gourley reports that the schooner W [illegible] Snow started out of Patuxent Saturday for Baltimore. Her crew, with her name painted on it floated ashore Sunday near Millstone creek. A body supposed to be one of the Snow's crew was found on the beach. It is feared that the entire crew is lost.

The steamer Sue arrived here this morning from the Potomac river and brought news of the severest storms ever known in Southern Maryland. Many vessels were sunk. All the fish traps were destroyed in the lower Potomac. There was also a severe loss along the river front as the land was submerged in many places. Many acres were washed away. The wharf and shore at Sleepy Hole were washed away and Clerk Woodward was drowned. A very aged colored woman, named May Jasper who lives alone was found on the floor of her hut drowned. All the Southern side of the harbor is lined with wreckage.

Captain Elijah Benson and two sons of Portsmouth are reported to have capsized in an oyster sloop in the James river and drowned. The oyster fleets have suffered severely. Thirty vessels went ashore in Scott's creek.

TWO WRECKS ON THE A & P

Passenger Trains Collide and a Freight Dashes Into a Burned Bridge

LOS ANGELES, April 9—The west bound overland passenger train on the Atlantic & Pacific arrived many hours late, having been in collision Sunday afternoon with the east bound passenger train near Peach Springs Arizona 103 miles beyond the Needles.

The trains, drawn by two engines each, met on a sharp curve on a high embankment and came together with a fearful crash demolishing the engines and throwing them from the bank into the stream carrying three or four cars with them. One engineer jumped on the wrong side and fell down a rocky steep eighty feet. He was fearfully bruised and internally injured. [illegible] of the trainmen and passengers escaped [illegible] but were badly shaken up. [illegible] tender was crushed to death.

A FREIGHT TRAIN WRECKED

DAGGETT Cal April 9—Freight train No 13 ran into a burned bridge on the Atlantic & Pacific to-day badly ditching the engine and six of the cars. An unknown man who was riding on the engine was instantly killed and one of the brakemen was slightly injured. Trains have been delayed for a few hours.

THE SAMOAN DISASTER

A Naval Officer Says it Might Have Been Prevented by a Full Supply of Coal

CHICAGO April 9—[illegible] of the United States steamer Adams arrived this morning, from San Francisco. He left Samoa five months ago. He expressed the opinion that if there had been coal at Pago-Pago more lives might have been saved in the recent storm.

COULD HAVE BEEN AVOIDED

SAN FRANCISCO April 9—It is claimed here that the fact that the warships lost at Samoa were without coal could have been prevented. A prominent firm in this city acquainted with the Samoan coast and the inconvenience to boats unprovided with fuel at this time of the year made an offer through Paymaster Goldsborough to supply Australian coast vessels [illegible] at $10 a ton. The firm could afford this, as they have ships plying between this city and Sydney. The offer was referred to the head of the equipment bureau at Washington and refused. The contract was given to a Philadelphia firm who supplied 2000 tons of coal at special rates. It is claimed that if the offer of Australian coal had been accepted the disaster might have been avoided as the coal could have been placed on board within thirty days.

A SAVAGE ATTACK

Andrew Carnegie Shows Up the Pennsylvania Railroad in a Bad Light.

HARRISBURG Pa April 9—In a speech in the house of representatives last night Andrew Carnegie savagely attacked the Pennsylvania Railroad Company declaring that it was injuring business and depressing the value of property in large sections of Pennsylvania in order to hold its monopoly. He gave a history of how he helped the South Pennsylvania railroad scheme. Vanderbilt subscribed five million and Carnegie two and a half millions but the Pennsylvania company drove Vanderbilt to recede from the project by threatening to injure his other railroad property. This was when he was broken in health and since his death the present Vanderbilt management had agreed to join with Carnegie in building the South Pennsylvania road, but were driven out by the same threats.

Carnegie advised the legislature to take the matter in hand and bring the Pennsylvania Company to account.

A CHINESE CULPRIT CAUGHT

A Prominent Celestial of Denver Elopes With Another Man's Wife

CHICAGO April 9—Yee Sing a wealthy Chinese merchant of Denver has been arrested here, charged with eloping with Wong Joy the wife of Chin Poo another prominent Chinaman, and with carrying off $400 of Chin Poo's money. Yee Sing denies the theft of the money but admits the soft impeachment as to the wife. He returns to Denver to-day in charge of an officer.

It is understood that Yee has a rich brother in San Francisco and it is suspected that he is an exiled mandarin. His appearance indicates that he is above the ordinary.

A LACK OF COAL

Caused the Loss of Many Lives During the Recent Storm at Samoa

CHICAGO April 9—Captain Leary of the United States steamer Adams arrived this morning from San Francisco. He left Samoa five months ago. He expressed the opinion that if there had been more coal at Pago Pago more lives might have been saved in the recent storm.

TUESDAY, April 9.

Merchandise received or soon to arrive by rail: 1 car load agricultural implements, 1 car farm wagons, 1 car spring wagons, 1 lot wagon material, 274 bdls and 200 sheets iron, 1 car brass, 84 pkgs hardware, 9 kegs nails, 14 castings, 39 cs dry goods, 17 cs clothing, 7 cs hats and caps, 46 cs boots and shoes, 81 pkgs tobacco, 10 cs cigars, 4 cs cigarettes, 1 lot seeds, 1 car soap.

PRODUCE RECEIPTS—Past twenty-four hours: 8456 ctls wheat, 1342 bbls flour, 1032 ctls oats, 70 ctls bran, 250 ctls millstuffs, 47 sks potatoes, 24 pkgs butter, 184 bxs eggs, 20 bxs green fruit, 38 pkgs dry fruit, 22 head hogs.

WHEAT—The market is dull and weak. Locally business is light. Recent mail dates report at Chicago that the grain trade there and elsewhere is "all at sea" in regard to the crop probabilities for this year. The news from the Northwest certainly does not favor the expectation of a good wheat crop in that section. The accounts of extensive prairie fires indicate that the ground is as dry as dust in many places and pulverized to that condition where the frost has left it. Private accounts substantiate this view. They also tell that the wheat in the Northwest is practically all out of the hands of farmers, and that as a rule the elevators are closed for the season. Stocks at milling centers in that region are likely to remain intact through this month because it will cost nothing additional to hold them in store, and the needs of millers will be supplied as far as possible from the country elevators, but after that the stocks in the visible supply are expected to decrease rapidly, and men in the trade in Minneapolis are expressing grave fears that wheat will be a scarce article sometime before the new crop is available for passing through the rolls.

FREIGHTS—Dull and no demand. It is reported that the Solide now at Astoria will go to Puget Sound for lumber rather than take 35s.

EGGS—The market is fairly active. We quote 15c.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, April 9.—The stock market was dull, feverish and generally weak in the forenoon today, but outside of Atchison the declines were insignificant and in the afternoon there was more activity, accompanied by a decided stronger feeling, and the result of the day's trading is to leave almost everything on the list materially higher than last evening.

Government bonds have been dull, but steady.

MONEY, BONDS AND STOCKS.

SAN FRANCISCO MARKETS.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—Receipts of produce past 24 hours include 28,500 ctls wheat, 13,000 qr sks flour, 1900 sks potatoes, 6200 ctls barley.

Freights—Dull and weak; nothing new to note in grain tonnage. The ship Commodore has been chartered to load a cargo of coal at Departure bay for this port.

Wheat—Holders are offering freely and the spot market is active at lower prices. Exporters pay $1 35@1 37½ for No. 1 shipping. On the produce exchange business is quiet, options receiving little attention. Sales of No. 1 white buyer year were 100 tons at $1 41⅝, 1500 tons at $1 41¾, 700 tons at $1 41¼, buyer season closed $1 40. Afternoon session, buyer year opened $1 41½; closed $1 41⅝; buyer season $1 39¾; seller year (new), $1 29⅝.

Barley—Receipts are increasing, and holders are in many instances pressing their stocks upon the market. There is very little buying, but transactions are worked on a basis of 70@71¼c for choice feed. Options are dull, buyer year 82¼c; buyer season 70¾c.

Oats—The market is dull and weak. The demand is slow, and buyers are doing very little. Stocks are large and offerings heavy. Quote feed, ranging from 95c@$1 05.

Millstuffs—The feeling is rather easier, in sympathy with other produce. Trading is quiet. Quote bran $11 00@11 50; middlings $12 50@13 00.

Potatoes—The general features of the market are about the same. Prices steadily favor buyers, and no improvement has, as yet, taken place in the demand. Stocks are excessive and increasing under heavy consignments from the north. Quote Burbanks 45@65c, Peerless 35@45c; Garnet Chili 40@50c.

Hops—Very little enquiry; stock small, nominal 10@16c, per lb.

Wool—The movement is very light, but holders firm. Spring coming forward steadily. Prices not yet established.

Bags—There is a fair demand, and market rules firm. Calcutta spot 8c; June-July delivery, 8¼@8½c.

CHICAGO MARKETS.

CHICAGO, April 9.—Wheat receipts past twenty-four hours at the seven principal receiving points were 223,000 bushels; shipments from these points for the same time, 187,000 bushels.

Wheat—Opened easier and sold steadily down until after noon, when a reaction set in and prices rose, closing rather higher. Quotations throughout the day ranged as follows: Opening, 86c May, 85½c June, 83¼c July. Noon—85¼c May and June, 83⅝c July. Closing—85½c April, 86½c May and June, 83⅞c July.

Provisions—Pork, $11 92½ May. Lard, $6 96 May. Ribs, $6 07½ May.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK MARKET.

CHICAGO, April 9.—Cattle—Receipts, 8000; strong; beeves, $4 40; steers, $3 35@4; stockers and feeders, $2 50@3 55; Texas steers, $3 40@3 90.

Hogs—Receipts, 10,000; slow; 5c lower; mixed, $4 70@4 90; heavy, $4 70@4 95; light, $4 70@4 75.

Sheep—Receipts, 7000; lower for heavy; natives, $3 75@5 50; Westerns, corn fed, $1 75@5 40.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

NEW YORK, April 9.—Grain freights to Liverpool by steamer rule steady at 2½d per bushel.

Wheat—Opened easy at 85⅞c May, 87⅛c June, 87⅛c July. Noon—Stronger; 86⅛c May, 87½c June, 88c July, 87¼c August; closing firmer and higher: 84⅞c April, 86¾c May, 87⅞c June, 88⅛c July, 87¼c August.

MISCELLANEOUS.

NEW YORK, April 9.—Hops, quiet; steady.

Coffee—Options opened unchanged to 5 points up, and closed steady at 10@25 points up; sales, 33,250 bags; April, $16 50; May, $16 65; June, $16 70@16 75; July, $16 75@16 90; spot Rio, firm; fair cargoes, 18¾c.

Sugar—Raw, stronger; fair refining, 5 11-16c; centrifugal, 96 test, 6⅜c; sales, 23,000 bags; 5 11-16@5¾c for Rio Grande and Bahia; refined, strong, quiet.

Wool—Quiet; easier; domestic fleece, 32@38c.

Copper—Nominal; lake, April, $14 50.

Lead—Dull; steadier domestic, $3 55.

Tin—Weaker; dull; Straits, $20 90.

Bar silver, 92⅛c.

Petroleum—Opened weak at 80⅞c, and closed steady at 80c.

BOSTON WOOL MARKET.

BOSTON, April 9.—Wool is in moderate demand; prices nominally unchanged.

PHILADELPHIA WOOL MARKET.

PHILADELPHIA, April 9.—Wool, quiet; prices unchanged.

FOREIGN MARKETS.

LIVERPOOL GRAIN MARKET.

LIVERPOOL, April 9.—Wheat—Weak; holders offer freely; California No. 1, 7s 3d per cental; red Western spring, 6s 9d; red Western winter, 7s ½d.

Corn—Easy; demand fair; new mixed Western, 4s 10d per cental.

How I Saved My Life.

I was taken sick while at the dinner table with terrible distress in my stomach. Before this I had been hearty and strong. For fourteen days I kept getting worse, despite the efforts of two doctors. I lost forty pounds, and was satisfied that I could live but a few days. My trouble was resulting in an attack of bilious colic. At this time I saw Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, of Rondout, N. Y., advertised, and sent for a bottle. I also sent for my physician, and told him that I was going to try the Favorite Remedy. He examined it and told me to use it three days and let him know the result. In the three days I walked four miles. Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy has saved my life.—W. S. Bitzer, Slate Mills, Ross Co., Ohio.

DR. KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY,

Made at RONDOUT, N. Y. $1; 6 for $5.

THE MARCH OF PROGRESS!

OUR LATEST IMPROVEMENTS!

"Competition is the Life of Trade," and if you have not seen our latest improved goods you cannot imagine how lively trade is, or how hard our competitors have to work to keep within sight of us. Ask your retailers for the James Means $3 Shoe, or the James Means $4 Shoe, according to your needs.

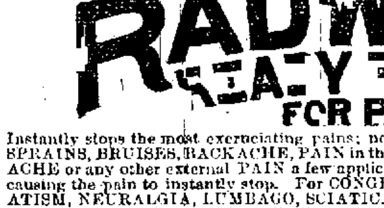
Positively none genuine unless having our name and price stamped plainly on the soles. Your retailer will supply you with shoes so stamped, if you insist upon his doing so; if you do not insist, some retailers will coax you into buying inferior shoes upon which they make a larger profit.



MADE ALSO IN BUTTON & CONGRESS
JAMES MEANS' $3 SHOE
UNEXCELLED IN STYLE UNEQUALLED IN DURABILITY AND PERFECTION OF FIT.
JAMES MEANS' SEAMLESS $3 SHOE

JAMES MEANS' $4 SHOE
CANNOT FAIL TO SATISFY THE MOST FASTIDIOUS
MADE ALSO IN LACE & BUTTON
JAMES MEANS' $4 SHOE

Such has been the recent progress in our branch of industry that we are now able to affirm that the James Means $4 Shoe is in every respect equal to the shoes which only a few years ago were retailed at eight or ten dollars. If you will try on a pair you will be convinced that we do not exaggerate. Ours are the original $3 and $4 Shoes, and those who imitate our system of business are unable to compete with us in quality of factory products. In our lines we are the largest manufacturers in the United States.

One of our traveling salesmen who recently visited the shoe retailers of the Pacific Coast and Rocky Mountain Region writes from there as follows:

"I am more than satisfied with the results of my trip. I have thus far succeeded in placing our full line in the hands of 'A No. 1' dealers in every point I have visited." He goes on to say, "This is a splendid region for us to sell shoes in because most of the retailers are charging their customers at retail about double the prices which the shoes have cost at wholesale. The consequence is that the people who wear shoes are paying six or seven dollars a pair for shoes which are not worth as much as our JAMES MEANS' $3 and $4 SHOES. Our shoes with their very low retail prices stamped on the soles of every pair are breaking down the high prices which have hitherto ruled in the retail markets there, and when a retailer puts a full line of our goods in his stock they at once begin to go off like hot cakes, so great is the demand for them."

Now, kind reader, just stop and consider what the above signifies so far as you are concerned. It assures you that if you keep on buying shoes bearing no manufacturers name or fixed retail price stamped on the soles, you cannot tell what you are getting and your retailer is probably making you pay double what your shoes have cost him. Now, can you afford to do this while we are protecting you by stamping our name and the fixed retail price upon the soles of our shoes before they leave our factory so that you cannot be made to pay more for your shoes than they are worth?

Shoes from our celebrated factory are sold by wide-awake retailers in all parts of the country. We will place them easily within your reach in any State or Territory if you will invest one cent in a postal card and write to us.

S.S.S.

PEACH HILL, TEXAS, June 20, 1888.—The Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Ga.—Gentlemen: One of my children was troubled with rheumatism and boils for about two years. We gave her various kinds of medicine, but without profit, and began to despair of curing her at all. I was persuaded to try your Swift's Specific. After she had used several bottles the disease all disappeared, and she is now a hale, hearty and healthy girl twelve years old. Another child has just become afflicted in the same way, and I am using the S. S. S. and anticipate a prompt and permanent cure. N. C. WADDOUSE.

RICH HILL, MO., July 7, 1888.—The Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.—Gentlemen: Our little girl when but three weeks old broke out with eczema. We tried the prescriptions from several good doctors, but without any special benefit. We tried S. S. S., and by the time one bottle was gone her head began to heal, and by the time she had taken six bottles she was completely cured. Now she has a full and heavy head of hair—a robust, hearty child. I feel it but my duty to make this statement. Respectfully, H. T. SHOBE.

CHATTANOOGA, TENN., June 27, 1888.—The Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.—Gentlemen: In 1886 I contracted blood poison, and at once sought a physician, who treated me for several months. By his advice I went to Crab Orchard Springs, Ky., where his course of treatment was carefully observed. I recovered, as I thought, but the next spring pimples began to appear on my face and body. These gradually increased to sores and running ulcers. I was advised to try S. S. S., and immediately after taking it I commenced to improve, slowly at first, but more rapidly afterwards, and soon nothing remained to tell of my trouble. My blood is now thoroughly cleansed, and my system free from taint, and I owe my present condition—a perfect cure—to your medicine. I cheerfully give this statement that others who have suffered as I have may reap the same benefit. HARDY M. BURT, 22 West Ninth St.

HOMER, LA., May 22, 1888—The Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.—Gentlemen: About two years ago my general health gave way entirely. I was so debilitated that I almost despaired of ever feeling well again. All that the physicians done for me brought no permanent relief. Friends insisted that I should give S. S. S. a fair trial, although I thought it would be throwing away money. After taking a thorough course, my health and strength returned, and I must say that S. S. S. alone cured me, as I discarded all others while using it. As a tonic I can most heartily recommend it; for general debility, it certainly is a specific. W. F. BARBOUR, J.P.

GEN. INGALLS IS WRATHY.

He Charges Joseph Holladay and Others With Unbecoming Conduct.

He Says Also That He Was Not Permitted to Attend Mrs Holladay's Funeral and That His Wards Are Kept From Him.

General Rufus Ingalls, the retired officer of the United States Army whom the late Mrs Ben Holladay in her will nominated as executor of her estate and guardian of her two young children, Linda and Ben, sat in an easy chair on the veranda of the Arlington club house last night and told an OREGONIAN reporter the story of his connection with the Holladay estate his friendship for Ben Holladay and wife and the determined opposition to him on the part of Ben's brother Joseph and others.

Gen. Ingalls began at the very beginning and told of his acquaintance with Ben Holladay forty five years ago. The acquaintance ripened into an intimate friendship which continued while Mr Holladay lived.

In 1886 said the general as he sent up blue wreaths of smoke from a cigar when Mr Holladay was leaving Washington for Portland he urged me to come here and aid him to disentangle his affairs, but at that time my business engagements would not permit me to leave New York. When he died in July 1887 Mrs Holladay wired me to come. I did so and no sooner had I reached Portland than I discovered that there was a conspiracy afoot to declare her incompetent to manage her affairs and it was the intention to have a guardian appointed for her children.

"In relation to this matter I saw Senator Mitchell who agreed to attend to Mrs Holladay's business, and at her request he drew up a power of attorney, giving me authority to act as her agent in all particulars. That had the effect of augmenting all the enmity on the other side. However after looking into her business affairs I learned that the $300 per month failed to pay her four or five servants etc and left her in debt. I took charge of her accounts and managed to [illegible] the order out of the chaotic state of affairs. I performed my duty to the best of my ability and have made up a statement of the finances of the estate which runs up to the hour of her death

GEN. INGALLS DENIES THAT HE SPONGED

"It has been charged that I have been living in high style at the expense of the estate. This is a most contemptible insinuation because I was Mrs Holladay's constituted agent and was living in the family residence by her invitation and direction and [illegible] board [illegible] could be considered high living. This is a delicate matter [illegible] little about it [illegible] half I have spent $100 and [illegible] performing the duty of an honorable friend

JOSEPH HOLLADAY'S INDIFFERENCE.

"Joseph Holladay did not show the slightest interest in his brother Ben's death. He did not attend the funeral. He did not even visit the hospital to see him while he was sick. He never spoke to Ben's widow after his brother's death nor to her children but he waited until W H Barnhart reported that she was dead then he and George W Weidler rushed into the house and took possession of her remains and effects. Barnhart stood at the foot of the dying woman's bed with a watch in his hand and as soon as he announced that her spirit had flown he rushed down stairs and took possession of the room I had been occupying. Then he reported the fact of her death to Weidler and Joseph Holladay who rushed in and took possession before the body was cold. Since Mrs Holladay's death Joseph Holladay has held the children in restraint though he has no more legal right to do so than any other outsider. He compelled the nurse of the children under threats of violence to give up the keys to Mrs Holladay's trunks.

MRS. HOLLADAY PERSECUTED.

"Since Ben Holladay's death Joseph Holladay has persecuted his brother's widow in every possible way, and on every occasion he has abused her to every one who happened to mention her name. He never spoke to her children, nor did he ever give them even a tin whistle for a present in his life. She died at last without ever having received one cent for herself and children as the widow of Ben Holladay. He fought her every way and even tried to prevent her occupying the house

A week ago Sunday when Mrs Holladay was supposed to be dying and when I was in charge of her effects and those of her children and had spent my entire time looking after their interests and was recognized as her agent by Weidler and Holladay. Weidler came to me and requested me to leave the house. I declined saying there were two ways of getting me out of the house one by force and the other by law and that he might take his choice. A few days later I voluntarily removed to a hotel

GENERAL INGALLS REFUSED ADMISSION

"The morning after Mrs Holladay's death I called at the house to dine with the children by appointment and was refused admittance through orders from the receivers. I was not invited or permitted to attend the funeral as a mourner. I have been refused communication with my wards and their teacher an estimable lady was refused entrance to her pupils Monday. This was base ingratitude and barbarity considering the [illegible] I had done all I could for Mrs Holladay losing sleep and being up night and day sending for physicians and dispatching carriages for the mother and sisters of Mrs Holladay

THE GENERAL WILL FIGHT IT OUT

"I regret deeply the associations that surround the children and shall take the earliest occasion to resume my guardianship over them. More than a thousand times during the past year and particularly during her last illness and in the hearing of her attendants and counsel Mrs Holladay has requested me to care for her children. I promised her I would and propose to fulfill my promise. I have already secured the services of a blood relative of the children Miss Lottie Early, of Lynchburg, Va., a niece of their father who will take charge of them. If the children stay in Portland she will stay here. If not, they will go to Virginia.

MRS HOLLADAY'S LETTER.

General Ingalls having told his story handed the reporter the following copy of a letter written by Mrs Holladay to Judge Matthew P Deady of the United States court

PORTLAND Oregon Feb 8 1889

Dear Judge Deady I dare to address you only in an unofficial and entirely private way as a poor afflicted, suffering invalid struggling alone to save something from the impending waste of my late husband's estate for my two fatherless children feeling sure that my forlorn condition will enlist your sympathy

I have earnestly tried hard to avoid all possible litigation but have been driven into attempts to have my rights vindicated yet so far have been defeated by the culpability of an unnatural and incompetent executor, who in 1883 did all in his power to seize all of his brother's property and in his insensate and barbarous course loaded down the estate with costs of nearly $700 000. He threatens me now with utter poverty

Early last June and before the executor and trustee had filed objections to the sale of the stock of the Oregon Real Estate Company the Hon George H Williams an old friend of my husband came to my house to propose a compromise for my interest in it but before he could conclude it he was withheld by Mr H Y Thompson, on the part of the purchasers. Immediately following on the 7th of June I wrote to Judge Williams that I was anxious and willing to take anything to stop litigation and offered to abide by any action he might take for me if he would undertake it or if he could not so act, I would leave it to Mr Failing or Mr Corbett or Mr Lewis or to Mr Green. Could I have done more. I am still ready to go as far now and certainly as willing. With such an executor I foresee nothing but the utter wreck of the estate which being honestly and intelligently administered I was ample to pay every honest debt in full and leave a competence to the heirs. I very humbly bespeak your kind offices with Mr Thompson and his party in my behalf and my children's in any way you may deem consistent and proper

The failure to redeem the stock was an imbecile and ignominious spectacle. Plenty of time was allowed and money was frequently offered

Very sincerely your most obedient servant

ESTHER HOLLADAY

ERRONEOUS STATEMENTS

The Case of Miss Osgood Who Was Committed To the California Insane Asylum

ASTORIA April 8

To THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

In to-day's issue is a San Francisco dispatch headed "A school teacher insane. An Oregon girl who inherited her insanity from her mother." I the undersigned her brother first knew of her commitment to the Napa Insane Asylum through your columns although I had received a letter last week stating that a couple of eminent physicians of that city to whom she went for treatment pronounced her mind affected. She was a New York girl came to this state last July was examined and obtained a first grade certificate (an average over 90 per cent.) and was elected and taught in the school of this city until February 1889 which she resigned on account of ill health from over mental work (teaching and studying) and after getting better she went to California to visit relatives. As to the statement of her mother committing suicide by hanging while under a mental delusion it is entirely wrong and must have been from a statement made by my sister since she has been in this state of mind as my mother was 60 years of age at the time of her death and died a natural death as did her father at 80. By publishing these facts to refute the erroneous statements in the above mentioned dispatch in justice to my own and brother's families you will greatly oblige this unfortunate lady's brother

ABOUT DRESS REFORM

Speaking of Mrs. Jenness Miller the noted lecturer on Dress Reform who will appear at New Park theater next Monday the Philadelphia Press says

Probably the most prominent of all the leaders in the movement for reform in woman's dress is Mrs. Jenness Miller of New York. She appeared but a few weeks ago on the lecture platform at Washington and was well received. It is a favorite theory of hers that all women can be well and beautiful.

Mrs Miller is a Boston woman by birth. Her maiden name was Annie Jenness and she traces her ancestry back to that illustrious stock that gave us Wendell Phillips and Oliver Wendell Holmes. As a speaker Mrs. Miller is very entertaining. She has a strong but not unwomanly presence, and every movement of her well developed limbs, whether in posture or repose, is the movement of grace itself. Since she has adopted the style of dress she asks other women to wear she has not been ill an hour. Unlike some of the reformers of the day she is not masculine in any thing, but is a most womanly woman and beautiful.

Mrs. Miller's address was enthusiastically received and was interrupted by frequent and vigorous applause. The speaker wore one of the dresses modeled upon her own ideas of the correct dress and it was becoming and womanly

CRUSHED TO DEATH BY A TRAIN

An Unknown Scandinavian Killed in North Portland Last Night

An unknown man was run over and killed by the north bound through Northern Pacific train at Front and K streets at 10 10 o clock last night. He stepped upon a pile of refuse timber near the track to let the train pass but when the locomotive was about eight feet from him he fell backward on the track and in a moment more the train passed over him and nearly ground him into dust. The body was frightfully mutilated. The left leg was cut off below the knee and the right hung by a thread of flesh. Besides the back was broken

The man was seen staggering northward along the track about the time the train pulled out of the depot. John Mebus a switchman, saw him and yelled to him to get out of the way. He paid no attention to the warning until he heard the train rumbling behind him when he stepped upon the pile of lumber from which he fell to his death. Engineer Tuttle saw him on the track and tried to stop the train but was not able to do so in time to save the man's life

Quite a number of persons viewed the remains at the morgue last night but no one was able to identify them. One said he saw the man drinking in a north end saloon early in the evening. The man had been drinking, as he was staggering when first seen

The dead man was of medium height heavy set and weighed about 180 pounds. His eyes were blue his features round his hair sandy with a bald spot, his complexion fair [illegible] and his mustache [illegible] He wore [illegible] checkered brown suit [illegible] underclothes. [illegible] a brown woolen overshirt and a large black slouch hat

Nothing that would throw any light on his identity was found in his pocket. His only possessions were a five-cent piece and a small comb

FIRST ASCENT OF MOUNT HOOD

Meeting of the Alpine Club Last Night—Interesting Paper Read by George H Himes —Deer Skinning Again

The regular monthly meeting of the Oregon Alpine Club was held in their rooms in the Portland Savings Bank building, last evening. In the absence of the president Dr Cotel was elected president pro tem. George H Himes acted as secretary. About thirty members and friends of the society were present

Communications from President Harrison and Edgar W Nye acknowledging their election to honorary membership in the Oregon Alpine Club were read. The communication from President Harrison is written from the Executive mansion under date of March 25 by his private secretary E. W Halford. It reads as follows

The president directs me to acknowledge the receipt of your favor of the 16th conveying the information of his election as an honorary member of the Oregon Alpine Club and to express to you and to the members of the club his appreciation of this evidence of friendly regard. Very truly yours

E. W HALFORD,

Private Secretary

The name of Ovide Musin was proposed for honorary membership

The committee appointed to confer with the different railway companies with regard to the best methods of enforcing the deer skinning law submitted a report through their chairman W B Gilbert

Mr R Koehler manager of the Oregon & California railway suggested to the committee that the proper course to pursue is to have a number of circulars printed embodying such portions of the deer skinning law as the committee may see fit and have these circulars distributed to all the railway agents with instructions to act as supervisors to see that the law is strictly enforced. These suggestions were indorsed by E Cookingham assistant to the general manager of the O. R. & N. Co

This course seemed to meet with favor by all present and the necessary circulars will no doubt be printed and ready for distribution before the next monthly meeting. If all railway agents are instructed to report any violation of the law coming under their observation the chances are that but comparatively few contraband hides will find their way out of the state. A communication was also read from a man in Josephine county who judging from the tenor of his letter is somewhat pinched by the newly enacted deer skinning law. The members of the Alpine Club whom he characterizes as hunters dressed in broadcloth, he accuses of partiality by showing no quarters to an honest deer skinner while the panther which kills more deer than all the deer skinners and Alpine Club sportsmen put together is allowed to go unmolested. To remedy this evil the irate granger (or deer skinner) suggests the need of the state legislature passing laws to provide for paying bounty for such destructive animals. The letter is a mixture of fault finding anger and modified vituperation and created not a little merriment when read

It was announced that the Mendelssohn Quintette Concert to be conducted under the auspices of the club will be given in Masonic hall Tuesday evening and that the tickets are limited to 400

FIRST ASCENT OF MOUNT HOOD

The feature of the evening outside of the regular routine business of the club was the reading of a paper by Geo H Himes on the First Ascent of Mount Hood. The paper was largely made up of extracts from the account of that memorable ascent, as it appeared in THE OREGONIAN under date of August 25 1857. Among the members composing that party were Thomas Dryer, Capt Francis Wells Lake, Gen Palmer Capt. Barlow Judge Olney and Maj Hall r

All the many exciting incidents of that ascent, the startling discoveries and the many ludicrous situations in which the party found themselves are graphically described. The paper was closely listened to by all present those who have climbed the mountain since especially finding it very interesting as places are mentioned they themselves have seen in their own travels

OREGON HUMANE SOCIETY

Programme for the Ninth Anniversary Entertainment at the Tabernacle This Evening

The Oregon Humane Society will give its ninth annual entertainment at the Tabernacle this evening. The exercises promise to be of unusual interest. A number of children of the public schools have prepared excellent essays and the prizes are appropriate and useful

The committee on prizes have awarded fifteen presents to the fifteen best essays written by three children from each of the five public schools. THE IMMIGRATION BOARD.

First Meeting of the Newly Elected and Appointed Members

Officers and Committees Chosen—Several Communications Considered—The Status of the Board

The first meeting of the Oregon immigration board as newly constituted was held at 2 30 o'clock yesterday afternoon

Mr Charles H Dodd called the meeting to order and announced that in addition to the five members chosen at the subscribers' meeting on April 5th President Donald Macleay had appointed Messrs Charles H Dodd H W Corbett Ellis G Hughes D Solis Cohen and William McFall as members to serve on behalf of the Portland Board of Trade

There were present at the meeting yesterday Messrs Charles H Dodd Ellis G Hughes Eugene D White Charles E Sitton D F Sherman W M Killingsworth and Thomas F Osborn

Secretary Struble read the minutes of the subscribers annual meeting and the minutes of the previous meeting of the board which were approved

The chairman announced that the election of officers for the year would be next in order

Mr Hughes nominated Charles H Dodd for president

Mr Killingsworth nominated Ellis G Hughes who declined in favor of Mr Dodd.

Thereupon the secretary was instructed to cast the ballot of the board for Mr Dodd who was declared duly elected president

The remainder of the officers were elected in a like manner with the following result: Vice president Charles E Sitton treasurer H W Corbett secretary Wallace Struble

On motion of Mr Hughes the regular employes of the board named W W Thompson assistant secretary George Vall Huppertz collector and Guy Thompson mailing clerk were continued

COMMUNICATIONS

A letter was read from J [illegible] asking [illegible] agent of the [illegible] San [illegible] vouchers for the expenditure of $14 [illegible] asking the board to allow the same. On motion the claim was ordered paid

From the San Diego Daily Telegraph Company giving rates for distribution of printed matter placed on file

From the North Pacific Advertising and Publishing Company proposing to sell the board 800 copies of a handbook on Portland [illegible]

Several communications from various newspapers quoting rates for advertising the state were then considered with quite full discussion. The general sentiment of the board was favorable to the consideration of these mediums and in order that the matter might be considered more intelligently the communications were referred to a committee consisting of Messrs. Hughes, Osborn and White with instructions to report at the next meeting

The proposition of Arthur D Marshall to distribute the board's printed matter in Washington D C was declined

Similar disposition was made of the communication of Rev J F Park and the Southern Pacific Handbook both being advertising propositions

The advertising proposition of the Detroit Courier was favorably thought of on account of its cheapness and the secretary was instructed to communicate with the paper looking to the insertion of a local notice

A communication of R Koehler manager of the southern Pacific lines in Oregon in reference to the co-operation of that company with the work of the board was read and ordered placed on file

STANDING COMMITTEES.

On motion of Mr Sherman President Dodd was empowered to appoint two standing committees on printing and advertising

The chair named the following gentlemen

On printing—Messrs. Ellis G Hughes Charles E Sitton and D F Sherman

On advertising—Messrs Thomas F Osborn Eugene D White and W M Killingsworth.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The bill of Messrs Ellis & Sons for printing 50 000 copies of the new edition of New Empire $4C 18 was read and ordered paid

On motion of Mr Osborn the quorum of the board for the current year was fixed at five members

On motion of Mr Killingsworth Messrs Hughes and Dodd were named a special committee to confer with the O R & N Co on the matter of their subscription to the board

Adjourned to meet Tuesday April 16

THE BOARD'S CONDITION

The new board starts out under very encouraging auspices. Aside from the excellent personnel of its membership the board has every reason for encouragement in the very generous and general response to its solicitation for subscriptions. The work of canvassing in this city is being continued by Mr William Morton

With the experience of the past year before them, the board should be able to accomplish a valuable work during its official career. If it shall bring as great practical results in proportion to its ability as its predecessor the citizens of Portland will undoubtedly be satisfied

WOMEN TEMPERANCE WORKERS

Meeting Held Yesterday by the W C T U—Reports Dues Collected—Resignation of Mrs Miller

A meeting was held yesterday afternoon by the W C T U at their hall on First street

Mrs. A D Miller occupied the chair. The meeting opened with devotional exercises

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved

Miss Weeden the city missionary and press superintendent submitted her monthly report which was substantially as follows. As press superintendent, she had tried to keep the work before the public through the local press and had succeeded. As city missionary she had visited the sick and helped the poor to the best of her ability and had found much good resulting from lending a helping hand to the unfortunate in the time of need

Some weeks ago she visited seven sick persons in one day but now there is not so much sickness

She had collected for the society during the past month in dues membership fees and donations amounting to $50. She had obtained some subscribers for temperance papers, and gathered some literature to send to the jails and penitentiary. She had also gathered flowers to make bouquets for the sick and the hospital. Had attended the Yamhill county W C T U convention and organized a band to help build the temperance temple in Newberg, where she addressed the Y W C T U

She was also getting up a band in East Portland, being desirous that Oregon should not be behind in helping to build the modern temple

Miss Weeden then stated that she was going away and would resign her work in Portland but would always take an interest in the Portland W C T U

Her resignation was laid on the table for one week

Mrs. Bewle then made some remarks saying she was a crusader and had joyfully worked for the cause ever since. She was in favor of prohibition and woman suffrage

Dues were then paid in by Mrs Dalgleish Mrs Nickum Mrs Lewis and Miss Lyman also reported.

Mrs Cooper reported in reference to literature distributed in churches [illegible] also petitions

Mrs Stickafoose made some remarks about the work

Mrs A D Miller then addressed the meeting. She said the interests of the union were very near to her. She had done all she could to promote the good work but had found the labors too heavy and constant for her in addition to her home cares and duties. She was expecting to leave the city soon and would resign the presidency of the union

To this the members strongly objected but Mrs Miller insisted on the course she had chosen and named as her successor Mrs R N Keasey. After some discussion Mrs Keasey was finally elected to assume the duties of president and assumed the chair

After transacting some further business the meeting adjourned

NEW FEATURES

Commencing this evening the electric clock exhibition will add to the attractions already given Cordray's celebrated stereopticon and will give a complete tour around the world visiting all the prominent places of interest. This feature alone will be well worth seeing. The pictures are thrown on a large canvas which are true to nature taken by photographs some fifteen feet square. All the other attractions will be retained and the price of admission will remain the same. Mr and Mrs Lynch will be introduced every afternoon at 1 for the benefit of the little folks

MAJOR RENO'S HISTORY

Major Marcus A Reno formerly of the United States army who died at Providence hospital, in Washington March 31 of erysipelas was born in Illinois about 1835. He was graduated from the United States Military academy in 1857 and was assigned to the dragoons. After serving on the frontier and being made second and first lieutenant he was commissioned captain in the First cavalry November 1 1861. Subsequently he took part, among other engagements in the battles of Williamsburg, Gaines's Mills Malvern Hill Antietam and the action at Kelly's Ford Va., March 17 1863 where he was wounded, and was breveted major for gallant and meritorious conduct. He was also present at Cold Harbor and Trevillian Station and at Cedar Creek on the 19th of October 1864 when he was breveted lieutenant colonel. From January to July, 1865 as colonel of the Twelfth Pennsylvania cavalry he was in command of a brigade and encountered Mosby's guerillas at Harmony Va. On March 13 1865 he was breveted colonel in the regular army and brigadier-general of volunteers for meritorious services during the civil war. After serving as assistant instructor of infantry tactics in the United States Military academy and in the Freedman's Bureau at New Orleans, he was assigned to duty in the West. On December 26 1868 he was promoted major of the Seventh cavalry and in 1876 he was engaged with the lieutenant colonel of the regiment General George A Custer in the expedition against the hostile Sioux Indians. Owing to an [illegible] censure of his conduct in that campaign he was dismissed from the service in April 1880. It was charged that he failed to go to Custer's assistance when he might have done so at the battle of the Big Horn in which Custer and his companions were massacred. In recent years he has resided at Harrisburg, Pa and in Washington

HOMES FOR IMMIGRANTS

Public Lands Still To Be had in Many Parts of Oregon

The present season witnesses the largest volume of immigration to the Northwest that has ever occurred. People of the East and Southeast who have been struggling to make a living from their worn-out soils and by their overcrowded industries are becoming alive to the fact that in this portion of the Union there are [illegible] there yet remains splendid opportunities [illegible] which they may secure to themselves [illegible] and [illegible] other people [illegible] for [illegible] leave as the climate which they [illegible] find is genial and healthful

The immigrant of the present day displays a wisdom and sagacity which [illegible] to [illegible]. The event is likely to prove that he builded better than he knew. For it must occur to every observant and reflective person that the present inducements which are held out to the intending settler cannot in the nature of things much longer continue. That portion of the public domain adapted to settlement and cultivation is already nearly occupied. What remains will soon be taken by claimants. And when the last quarter section of government land is filed on the last opportunity for the immigrant to receive him [illegible] a home without entailing scarcely any expense will have disappeared

Real estate of every description in the Northwest owned by individuals is advancing in price and in the not distant future must be beyond the resources of the average homesteader to purchase

These considerations and others that might be mentioned point to the conclusion that now is the time to exchange the old for the new to come and settle while public land yet remains to be occupied

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

ABSOLUTELY PURE.

For quick raising the Royal Baking Powder is superior to all other leavening agents. It is absolutely pure and wholesome and of the highest leavening power. It is always uniform in strength and quality and never fails to make light, sweet, most palatable and nutritive food. Bread, biscuits, muffins cake, etc raised with Royal Baking Powder may be eaten hot without distressing results to the most delicate digestive organs. It will keep in any climate without deterioration

Prof H A Mott, U S Government Chemist, after examining officially the principal baking powders of the country, reported

"The Royal Baking Powder is absolutely pure, for I have so found it in many tests made both for that company and the United States Government.

"Because of the facilities that company have for obtaining perfectly pure cream of tartar and for other reasons dependent upon the proper proportions of the same, and the method of its preparation, the Royal Baking Powder is undoubtedly the purest and most reliable baking powder offered to the public.

ELLENSBURGH WASHINGTON.

The Central City and the future Capital of the State of Washington.
The center of the great Iron Coal Copper Gold and Silver Mines
The Heart of the Richest Agricultural and Grazing section of Washington.
The Trade Center for a country 150 miles in extent
Possessed of an abundance of Water and Timber
Water power practically unlimited
Blessed with a wide awake progressive people and fine climate.
Increased its population over a hundred per cent in twelve months.
Will do the same in 1889
Prairie and Bunch Grass country like the prairies of Kansas always ready for the plow.
Crops have never failed since the settlement of the country
In fact, it is God's country and money and live men are making Ellensburgh.

THE ELLENSBURGH BOARD OF TRADE.

Removal Sale of W. P. Cameron,

Southwest Corner Fourth and J Sts. East Portland, Or.

REMOVAL AND CLOSING OUT SALE OF DRY GOODS, MILLINERY, FURNISHING GOODS, YOUTHS' and BOYS' CLOTHING, HATS, CAPS, BOOTS, SHOES, ETC., ETC.

Having secured the fine Corner Store now being erected S E Cor Washington and Fourth sts Portland, which we will occupy as soon as the room is completed, and as we intend to carry an entirely different line of Goods than we now do, we are compelled to close out our entire Stock here, of fine goods for what they will bring. This is a rare chance to secure the best of goods at a [illegible] Cost. These goods must go, and prices will do it. During this sale there will be no reserve, the sale to continue until the entire stock is disposed of. LEASE AND FIXTURES FOR SALE
